Tough House Opposition Due Tax Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rugged House opposition awaits a compromise measure combining President Johnson's proposed income tax hike with a mandatory $6 billion spending slash.

Senate-House conferees nailed down Thursday a version tacking the spending cut demand onto the 10 per cent income tax surcharge Johnson has sought since last August.

In most respects, the conferees agreed to the bill passed earlier by the Senate. There has been no test in the House.

Reversing earlier indications, handlers of the legislation said it probably won't be brought to a House vote next week. They cited the time required to prepare a report on the complicated bill.

But it was evident the delay also is planned for careful head counts and persuasion of undecided members.

A major factor is Johnson's attitude. He faces the choice of blessing the measure because it contains the revenue he says is desperately needed, or fighting it—even with a veto if it is passed—because of the $6 billion cut.

That's $2 billion more than the figure he reluctantly agreed was acceptable and he has said a cut of this depth would be against the national interest.

Johnson himself has not commented on the conferees' decision. But a White House spokesman said he did not know whether the President would approve the bill if it is passed.

Observers noted a majority of senators who come up for re-election this year voted against the measure. All House seats are up for election this year.

Further complicating the dilemma of House members is the scheduled arrival during the next few days of the Poor People's Campaign in Washington. The administration has said a $6 billion budget cut will mean drastic slashes in education and other social programs—which campaign leaders are demanding be expanded.

The $6 billion actual spending cut under budget estimates for the year beginning July 1 fits into a $10 billion appropriations cut recommended by the conference. The President also would be directed to recommend savings of $8 billion to be made next January out of unspent previous appropriations.

Here's How Surtax Would Affect You

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are examples of how the surtax agreed on by Senate-House conferees would affect individual U.S. taxpayers if enacted by Congress:

1967	1968	1969
$145-single	$145.00	$145.00
290-joint	290.00	290.00
500	537.50	525.00
1,000	1,075.00	1,050.00
5,000	5,375.00	5,250.00
20,000	21,500.00	21,000.00

NOTE: This table takes into account the fact the surtax, as now written, would apply only for nine months of 1968 and six months of 1969. If Congress should extend the surtax through 1969, the additional tax figures for 1969 would be doubled.

On Raiding Czech Soil

West Discounts Soviet Invasion

WARSAW (AP) — Western observers today discounted rumors that Soviet troops are about to invade Czechoslovakia or are massing on its border to put pressure on the new liberal regime in Prague.

The rumors stemmed from reported movements of Soviet troops in Poland as close as 18 miles to the frontier with Czechoslovakia shortly after an emergency summit conference in Moscow of hard-line East European Communist leaders. They evidently discussed Czechoslovakia.

Diplomatic sources in Moscow conceded that Soviet-Czechoslovak relations have been shaken by Prague's sweeping liberalization, including its unshackling of the press. But these sources said the Soviets showed no sign of being disturbed enough to stage a rerun of the bloody quashing of the 1956 Hungarian rebellion.

Seasoned observers in Vienna felt likewise and linked the reported troop movements to previously announced plans for maneuvers of the Warsaw Pact forces that are scheduled to extend into Czechoslovakia.

Western military attaches were prevented from cleaving Warsaw to check on the Soviet troop movements, but one witness was reported to have seen Russian troops near the town of Andrychow, 18 miles from the Czech border.

In the wake of their own conference in Moscow early this week, leaders of the new Prague regime continued to give public assurance of their loyalty to communism despite their liberal trend.

Liberalization in Czechoslovakia has aroused the bitterest opposition among Polish and East German leaders, who fear it will prove an inspiration to restive Poles and East Germans and because Prague is showing signs of establishing relations with West Germany.

North Korea Seen Moving Toward Release Of Crew

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressman whose subcommittee deals in Asian matters says there is some indication North Korea is moving toward release of the 82 crewmen of the U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo.

But administration officials said they had no new progress to report in the long negotiations to win release of the ship and crew.

Rep. Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis., chairman of the House subcommittee on Asian and Pacific affairs, told a newsman that while he couldn't go into details, "there is some indication that they will be released."

"There is no doubt that we are coming nearer to a return of the men," he added.

Communist capture of the Pueblo Jan. 23 set off an international crisis which is being dealt with mainly at U.S.-North Korean talks at the Korean truce site, Panmunjom.

State Department officials said Thursday the ship has been moved from Wonsan Harbor. The North Koreans first brought it there after seizing it in what the United States claims were international waters.

The Reds were reported to have moved the vessel to a smaller North Korean port about 50 miles above Wonsan.

The whereabouts of the American crewmen is being kept secret and the North Koreans

Monaca Woman Dies From Bullet Wounds

A Monaca woman, shot five times Wednesday night by her estranged husband, died Thursday night at 10:30.

Mrs. Elizabeth Andresky, 46, of 151 Pleasant Dr., Center Township, died at Presbyterian University Hospital, Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Andresky was shot by her husband, Stanley Andresky Sr., 50, of the Monaca Hotel, as she stepped from her car after returning home from work at an Aliquippa bakery.

Officers said he was waiting behind the house. After the shooting, he turned the gun on himself and committed suicide.

The couple's five children were in the house when the shooting started.

Report Says Reds Being Driven Out

Indicates U.S. And South Viet Troops Crushed Assault

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. infantrymen clashed repeatedly today along the southern fringes of Saigon with bands of snipers and rocket-firing Viet Cong, but generally the Vietnam war slowed down as American and North Vietnamese peace negotiators prepared to meet in Paris.

The Americans from the 9th Division appeared to be driving the enemy away from South Vietnam's capital on the sixth day of the Viet Cong's "peace talk" offensive. Intelligence sources said U.S. and South Vietnamese forces had virtually crushed, at least for the time being, the waves of attacks on Saigon that began last Sunday.

They said one reason for the enemy setback was that U.S. troops sweeping the countryside around Saigon intercepted much of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces before they reached the capital.

Two major developments were reported in the air war against North Vietnam. U.S. Navy pilots said they blew up the biggest oil depot in the southern half of North Vietnam. And the U.S. Command confirmed a report earlier this week from Pentagon sources in Washington that Communist MIG fighters are operating in the North Vietnamese panhandle south of the 20th parallel for the first time in the war.

The command said a MIG-21 shot down an American F4 Phantom Tuesday about 145 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

The U.S. Command reported nearly 3,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed in the last five days of fighting around Saigon. One U.S. source said elements of 19 enemy battalions pressing toward the city had been repulsed during the past week with heavy losses.

Most of the capital was calm today, with life back to normal. Reports from the field and U.S. communiques indicated the pattern was much the same up and down the country, except for harassing enemy shelling.

But there still was heavy enemy fire from both sides of the Kinh Doi Canal which forms the southern boundary of Saigon.

An American helicopter gunship making a rocket pass south of the "Y" Bridge across the canal crashed and burned, possibly brought down by enemy fire.

Cleanup Set For Saturday At Wellsville

Wellsville's annual citywide cleanup will get under way Saturday morning at 8, with five trucks carrying four-man crews participating.

Mayor William Daugherty said the trucks will start from five different points and pick up everything but garbage and rubbish which would have to be shoveled.

He requested that residents set out their trash to help expedite the cleanup.

The campaign was kicked off Thursday when members of the high school Student Council cleaned up loose litter in the area of the school and members of the Future Teachers of America addressed students at MacDonald School, stressing their role in helping to keep the city clean.

Al Lukino, cleanup committee chairman, reported that two city trucks aided the students.

Army Taking Certain 'Prudent Actions'

Troops Being Alerted In Capital For Any Violence In Poor March

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thousands of Army troops in the Washington area reportedly will go on alert Saturday to be ready for any violence accompanying this weekend's arrival of the vanguard of the Poor People's Campaign.

The Pentagon said the Army was taking certain "prudent actions" but declined to detail them.

Sources said these actions include alerting troops at posts and bases near Washington to be set to move, if necessary, in as little as one hour.

Elements of the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, N.C., also will be alerted but won't be flown to the capital area unless needed, sources said.

Units of the District of Columbia National Guard, most of them military policemen, will undergo weekend drills at the D.C. Armory and will be available for any riot duty.

Other guardsmen will stand by at home or within easy reach.

It was reported that some Army agents were observing the progress of the Poor People's Campaign to determine the probable size of the crowds that will reach Washington, the mood of the marchers and those who are leading and influencing them.

Although leaders of the campaign maintain they will adhere to nonviolent means in seeking expanded social programs from Congress, fears have been expressed on Capitol Hill and elsewhere that violence could erupt.

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., has told the Senate his investigating committee has uncovered plans by militants—he refused to name them—to grab control of the campaign and turn it to rioting.

Americans Are Upset About Delay

Hoped To Launch Peace Talks Today In French Capital

BULLETIN PARIS (AP) — American and North Vietnamese officials arrived at peace conference headquarters today to discuss technical details for the opening of preliminary talks on ending the Vietnam war.

PARIS (AP) — Representatives of the United States and North Vietnam arranged to meet this afternoon to discuss plans for the opening of preliminary peace talks.

U.S. officials had said they hoped to begin substantial talks today and the arrangement for a session on planning details instead was reported to be a disappointment to them.

A U.S. spokesman was asked whether the North Vietnamese had requested this approach and whether they were stalling.

"I don't want to characterize the meeting," he replied. "The meeting was suggested and we accepted it."

About the same time the American announcement was being made of a 3 p.m. (10 a.m. EDT) meeting time the North Vietnamese chief delegate Xuan Thuy said the meeting would be at 3:30 p.m.

The discrepancy in time was not immediately explained.

The procedural questions for discussion at this first session could include the matter of an agenda for the later opening talks between Thuy and the U.S. top negotiator, Ambassador W. Averell Harriman.

An argument over the agenda could delay substantial talks indefinitely, but U.S. officials said they had no word that the situation would develop in that manner.

William Jordan, an assistant to Harriman, told newsmen U.S. representatives at the mid-afternoon session would be Ambassador Cyrus R. Vance and Philip

Union, Celotex Reach OK On Work Contract

Local 6252 of the United Steelworkers of America and management of the Celotex Corp. plant at Chester reached agreement shortly before noon today on a new three-year contract calling for a "package" of about 37 cents hourly, ending a strike that began at midnight April 24 with expiration of the former contract.

About 80 employees are involved. Glenn Mercer, president of the local, said the pact will run until April 24, 1971. It calls for an 11-cent hourly raise the first year, 5 cents in the second year and 4 cents in the third year. The local also secured a pension plan and improvements in the insurance and vacation agreements.

Deaths and Funerals

Harry Clark

Harry Clark, 79, of Louella Ave., Chester, died of an apparent heart attack Thursday at 3:30 p.m. at City Hospital shortly after being admitted. He had taken ill while performing his duties as a school patrolman.

A native of Darlington, Mr. Clark was born Feb. 4, 1889, a son of the late Benjamin Clark and Margaret Wymer Clark. He was a retired coal miner and had resided most of his lifetime in the Rogers area. He had served as a patrolman the last three years.

He was married in 1915 to the former Helen Butler, who died in 1953. In 1955, he married the former Mary McDole, who survives at home.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Pauline Crowl of Alliance and Mrs. Betty Bowers of Leetonia; a step-daughter, Mrs. Helen Scott of Hookstown; three sons, James Clark and Robert Clark, both of Rogers, and Charles Clark of Louisville, Ky.; a step-son, George McDowell of Chester; a brother, Charles Clark of Rogers, 21 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Warrick Funeral Home in Columbiana by the Rev. Douglas G. Stewart of the Rogers Christian Church. Burial will be in the East Carmel Cemetery, Rogers.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

E. Floyd Foringer

Services will be held Monday for E. Floyd Foringer, 69, of 607 Logan Ave., Toronto, who died today at 1:10 a.m. at St. John's Hospital, Steubenville, following a lengthy illness.

Born July 9, 1898, in Goulds, Ohio, he was a son of the late David P. Foringer and Anna Bischoff Foringer.

He was a former mechanic for 24 years at the Fulmer Garage in Toronto and was a member of the Toronto First Methodist Church.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ruth Wagner Foringer, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Chambers of Wellsville; a son, Paul Foringer of Toronto; a sister, Mrs. Freda Worth of Toronto; a brother, Harry Foringer of Auburn, N.Y.; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services will be held Monday at 1 p.m. at the Clarke Funeral Home, Toronto, with the Rev. John Hinerman officiating. Burial will follow in Highland Creek Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 12 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Carsie A. Wilson

Carsie Alphonso Wilson, 69, of Ravenna, a former resident of East Liverpool, died this morning at 1:45 at Robinson Memorial Hospital, where he had been a patient for 10 days. He had been in failing health the last two years.

He was born April 21, 1899, in Danville Va., a son of the late Felix Wilson and Sarah Fountain Wilson. He had resided here some years before leaving for Cleveland and then moving to Ravenna, where he resided the past 15 years. He was a custodian for the First Christian Church in Ravenna and had retired from the West Side Pontiac Co. in Cleveland, where he worked as a body repair man. He belonged to the

At Appreciation Banquet

Key Club Honors 2 Here

"Outstanding" member awards of the local Key Club were presented by Dale Jones, president, to Robert Matheny, left, and James Sherwood during an appreciation banquet Wednesday at the Inn Town Motel.

Matheny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer M. Matheny of Fisher Park, received the Key Clubber of the Year award, the highest honor a member can attain.

The Rookie of the Year award was presented to Sherwood, son of Mrs. James Sherwood of St. Clair Ave., as the first-year member who "best upholds the ideal of Key-Clubbing."

The recipients were chosen on the basis of leadership abilities, cooperation, ingenuity and club vote.

The program included a Voice of Democracy speech by Miss Patricia Wyche which received an award during county competition.

FOLLOWING the dinner, officers for 1968-69 were installed by Merrill D. Hall, Kiwanian adviser. They are: George Manning, president; Sherwood, vice president; Mike Grimes, secretary, and George Grant, treasurer.

Hall lauded the club for placing in the top 10 of the 328 clubs in the Ohio District.

Keith Steiner, president of the Beaver Local club and secretary of the Ohio District, added that the leadership ability of the club was demonstrated significantly at the district level.

Rootstown Methodist Church, near Ravenna. He was married to the former Thelma McCuen.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Oscar (Helen) Taylor of Cleveland and Miss Beverly Wilson and Miss Sarah Wilson, both at home; a sister, Mrs. Everett (Hattie) Burden of Cleveland; a brother, Theodore Wilson of East Liverpool, and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Shortz Funeral Home in Alliance. Burial will be in Homeland Cemetery, Rootstown.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Peter C. Suznevich

Private services will be held Sunday at Seattle, Wash., for Peter C. Suznevich, 45, a former Midland resident, who died of a heart attack Wednesday. Burial will be there.

He had just returned to Seattle Monday from Midland after attending the funeral of his mother, the late Mrs. Mary Suznevich.

The family asks there be no material tributes.

Mrs. Mary Ash

Mrs. Mary M. Ash, 94, widow of Kenneth S. Ash, died Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Fox Nursing Home, where she had been a patient four weeks. She had been ailing for several years.

She resided with a daughter, Mrs. Otis (Hazel) Eddy of New Cumberland RD 2, for nine years before going to the nursing home.

She was born in Meadville, W. Va., Dec. 21, 1873, a daughter of the late George Mead and Catherine Baker Mead. She had resided in the Newell area for 38 years. Her husband died in 1955. She also was preceded in death by four brothers and two sisters.

In addition to Mrs. Eddy, she leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Albert (Gladys) Ash of Newell and Mrs. Frank H. (Ruby) Simcox of East Liverpool; two sons, Russell Ash of East Liverpool and Everett Ash of Newell; two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Ripley of Newell and Mrs. Eve Smith of East Liverpool, 10 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 1 p.m. at the East Liverpool Arner Homes for Funerals by the Rev. Walter Speece of the Monaca Church of the Nazarene and the Rev. Ralph Mitchell of the Congo Church of the Nazarene. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday and Sunday.

R. C. Ewing

R. C. (Cappy) Ewing, 72, of New Cumberland RD 1, a retired employe of the Weirton Steel Co. and a World War I veteran, died late Thursday night at City Hospital after a long illness.

A native of New Cumberland, Mr. Ewing was born Nov. 6, 1895, a son of the late Chester Ewing and Campsie Campbell Ewing. He retired in 1960 from the steel plant, where he worked in the 54-inch hot mill. He was a member of the Point Pleasant Methodist Church, New Cumberland RD, and the 25-year Club of Weirton Steel.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Lillian Bloomgren Ewing, and a daughter, Miss Marcella Ewing, both at home; two other daughters, Mrs. William (Marilyn) Affleck of Hawaii and Mrs. Jack (Marian) McDonald of New Cumberland RD 1; two sons, Robert Ewing, New Cumberland RD 1, and Raymond Ewing of New Cumberland, 13 grandchildren, a niece and nephew. He was preceded in death by three brothers, including

Club Meeting Attracts 100

Some 100 attended a joint meeting of the Midland Lions and Rotary Clubs Thursday night at the Rolling Acres Golf Club.

Dr. Satoru Nakamoto, head of the department of artificial organs at Cleveland Clinic, was guest speaker. He screened slides.

He also discussed hemodialysis, the treatment of kidney ailments through the "washing" of impurities from the blood.

It was announced the Lions Club donated about $2,000 toward the purchase of a Traveler RSP kidney machine for Mrs. Anthony (Juanita) Martell of Midland, who is suffering from a kidney ailment.

Dr. Nakamoto, introduced by Martell, was presented a plaque from the club.

Paul McGeehan, a Lion, gave the invocation and benediction. Lester Trainer, incoming president of the Lions extended the welcome. Guests included Dan Laderer of Beaver Falls, governor of Lions District 14N.

Leo E. Curto, Rotary president, spoke. Dr. Nakamoto is a member of the East Cleveland Rotary.

Music for dancing was by the Jim Botti Orchestra.

The Midland Lions will purchase glasses for two needy persons under its sight conservation project. Truman E. Rodlong is in charge of the program.

Trainer tentatively set a Board of Directors meeting Sunday to outline his program for the coming year, beginning July 1.

The Lions membership meeting will be May 23 at the Willows Motel. The Rotary Club will hold a dinner meeting next Thursday at 6:15 p.m. at the New Riviera Club. The club will attend open house Friday at the Mackintosh - Hemphill Co. plant.

He also said he knows of no U.S. effort to free the men by paying ransom.

Representatives of the opposing sides met again at Panmunjom Tuesday—their 16th session on the Pueblo. There was no outward evidence of progress resulting from the 30-minute talk.

Talks

Habib, a State Department expert on Vietnam.

The session was set for the International Conference Center, the old Majestic Hotel, where the main talks are to be held.

At the top of the agenda was the North Vietnamese demand that the United States unconditionally halt its bombing of North Vietnam, extending the curtailment President Johnson ordered March 31 to the whole country.

Until this is done, Hanoi has said, the political issues at the heart of the war cannot be discussed.

The United States has limited its bombing to the lower sector of North Vietnam, requiring that Hanoi demonstrate reciprocal "restraint" in return for a halt of all U.S. aerial attacks in the North.

If a formula for a bombing halt can be reached, it is expected that the negotiators will then take up the sticky political questions. But no one pretends to know how long it will take to get an agreement to limit the war to South Vietnam's boundaries.

Asked before he left Washington, Harriman said he "wasn't hired to be a crystal ball gazer."

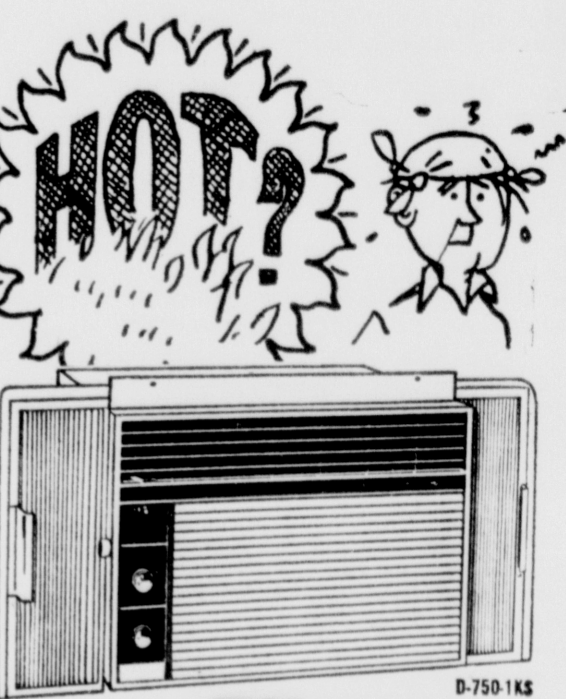

Thuy, who knows Harriman from the 1961-62 Geneva conference on Laos, proclaimed a hard line as he arrived Thursday. He said the origin of the war is "American aggression" and North Vietnam's four-point program for peace is "reasonable, logical and judicious." The key points are American withdrawal from Vietnam and reunification of North and South Vietnam without foreign interference.

Despite this outward inflexibility, the North Vietnamese were thought to be ready for a compromise to get the bombing stopped. Some non-American diplomats said they thought Hanoi would be willing to stabilize its troop strength in the South if the United States would do likewise.

Senator Should Speak Out

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., has told the Senate his investigating subcommittee has the names of two radical leaders who plan to turn the Poor People's Campaign into a super-scale riot.

If the Arkansas senator does have the names of potential troublemakers, he owes it to the people of the United States to make known their identity so appropriate steps can be taken to insure order.

PUBLIC EXPOSURE could well force the extremists into the background during the upcoming campaign in a move to discredit the remarks of Sen. McClellan.

Another possibility is that exposure would permit the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy and other organizers of the campaign to denounce the firebrands and minimize their effectiveness.

If release of the names triggered more brazen activity on the part of the extremists, other strategy could be employed to prevent lawlessness.

The Poor People's Campaign, which includes a march on Washington and harassment of Capitol Hill officials, is a keg of dynamite with a short fuse.

Organizers who know how to stir up emotions and channel mob momentum into violence could turn the campaign into a nightmare.

Even under nonextremist leadership, threats of civil disobedience and demands for sweeping concessions could easily lead to results far beyond anything yet experienced in America.

WITH AGITATORS on the prowl and spoiling for a fight, anything can happen.

Concerned Americans recall previous boastful statements from extremists who promised to use any means available to promote as much trouble as possible.

If Sen. McClellan has information that would hold down potential trouble, then it is his duty to reveal it to his colleagues and the American public.

Busy And Booming

It has been more than 61 years since the first heat was poured from a cupola furnace at the then "S. Jarvis - Adams Co." foundry at Midland.

Completion of a $2 million expansion program announced this week by the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division plant, successor to the early foundry, points up the continuing expansion of the facility since that simple beginning when its products included axle boxes for wagons and buggies, railroad and trolley car brake shoes and bell dies.

The Ramsey Speer, H. C. Fownes, W. C. Fownes and Charles McKnight families of Pittsburgh, backers of the foundry, were also organizers of the Midland Steel Co. which became a Crucible Steel Corp. mill, and were in with the Rust Boiler Co. which started what would eventually become the Treadwell Construction Co. facility, another Midland industry whose facilities were taken over by Crucible.

The E. W. Bliss Co. which operates Mackintosh, has shown its recognition of the potential of the Midland plant with this new investment, another important advance of the district's economy and another phase of industrial development at busy, booming Midland.

Bobbie Burns Was Right

When Scottish poet Robert Burns penned his poem "To a Louse," in the latter half of the 18th century, he expressed a wish that was not possible in the 1700s, but is today.

The wish, oft quoted, was this: "Oh would some power the gift to give us, to see ourselves as others see us! It would from many a blunder free us, and foolish notion."

Today, thanks to instant replay of television tapes, we can see ourselves exactly as others see us. And as the famous Scot poet predicted, it is freeing us from many a blunder and foolish notion.

At the moment, it is helping only those in the college and universities where television tape recorders and instant replay equipment is being used, but its potential for use in many other fields, including home instruction, is tremendous.

In various classrooms at Ohio State University, for example, the electronic teaching aids are proving very effective in making students their own best critics. The students no longer need rely on their fellow students for appraisal. They can look at themselves in action and the camera doesn't lie.

As Bobbie Burns said so long ago — such an ability is, indeed, a gift. And its use, in the 20th century, should lead to improvement in many fields of human endeavor.

An American Imperative

In a typical move, President Johnson has tried to sidestep responsibility for economic problems in the United States and shift the blame onto Republican shoulders.

He labeled a further delay by Congress on his 10 per cent income tax surcharge proposal a "ticket to disaster."

He claimed Congress is trying to blackmail the administration into spending cuts the nation cannot afford.

He termed the tax increase "an American imperative" and envisioned it as a panacea that would build new strength in the dollar abroad, assist in warding off domestic inflation and help pay the Vietnam War bill.

THAT'S A PRETTY TALL order for a "temporary" tax that amounts to only one-tenth of the present income tax.

Responding to administration pressure, the House Ways and Means Committee endorsed Mr. Johnson's tax increase combined with a $4 billion spending reduction.

There is still a long way to go before the bill gains congressional approval but chances are good it will make it.

Confusion and illusion have been part of the campaign to get the tax measure approved.

When President Johnson first asked Congress for a surcharge on taxes in January 1967, it was for a 6 per cent increase for two years "or for so long as the unusual expenditures associated with our efforts in Vietnam continue."

That being the case, the other 4 per cent that has been added in intervening months must be for restoring the dollar to its former position abroad and for stabilizing the inflationary trend in this country.

Even if all this were possible through enactment of the tax increase — and it isn't — there is no guarantee the present administration would follow through on the program.

It could be dribbled away without accomplishing any of its stated goals.

There have been too many cases where economic conditions have been utilized by administration spokesmen to make a point and reused some time later to make a conflicting point.

Mr. Johnson has been blaming the rising cost of the Vietnam War, not regular budget expenditures, for creating the need for additional revenue. Actually, the increase in non-defense spending has zipped ahead of defense spending.

SEN. WILLIAM PROXMIRE recalled recently that in 1964, when Douglas Dillon was secretary of the treasury, he told the House Ways and Means Committee that a tax reduction would help the U.S. shape up its balance of payments deficit.

Now the House Ways and Means Committee is being told a tax increase would benefit America's campaign to eliminate its balance of payments deficit.

A lack of courage on the part of the administration should not hamper Congress in going forward on a program of bringing federal spending to a reasonable level in relation to this nation's economic facts of life.

If the tax increase goes into effect without stringent spending controls, the economic crisis will not disappear. Then who will have to shoulder the blame?

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Sunday evening as we traveled the "super" road toward East Liverpool we came upon a dog that had been struck and killed. Beside the road next to the guardrail sat a little brown dog waiting for his companion to get up and go with him. Traffic was very heavy, and I couldn't stop, but I knew the second dog would be killed if he ventured onto the highway.

After leaving our daughter at the school of nursing I made up my mind to stop on my way home and check out the situation, although I didn't see how one could cross both lanes of traffic on a Sunday evening. I got to the scene, and the little dog was still keeping his lonely vigil. After pulling to the side of the road and waiting for what seemed ages, I got a break and made it to the other side. The cocker (that is his breed) never moved, and I picked him up and put him in our car with our basset. I made another trip across and pulled the dead dog to the berm of the road.

I felt very humble for the faithfulness of a dumb animal. Oh, that we humans had just a little of it. I was more than a little mad that someone would dump two dogs off to forage for themselves, for that, I feel sure, is what happened. The cocker had a piece of rope looped around his neck. If undesirable situations arise, why don't people try to place the animal with someone or call the dog catcher? It would be better to have them destroyed in a humane manner rather than struck and killed or perhaps injured by fast traffic.

The story as yet has no ending, because I couldn't keep the cocker — we already have our big dog and our son's dog while he is in the service — but my sister is keeping him for now (she has a dog, too) and perhaps if he has owners, they will show up. If we can't place him, he will not be left to roam.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I would like to express my concern about mail delivered in Vietnam. Why does it take such a long time for mail, letters and packages to reach them?

I have received letters from our son, who is stationed in Hue, is three days time. I am most happy about this — but shouldn't the mail to these boys be the most important part of our mail service?

I would rather see the procedure switched if need be for me to wait two weeks and that they might receive the mail from here in the three or four days. I try to send cookies air mail so they will be fresh, but that doesn't seem to help. Let's do more for those who are in the far-away hazardous places of our world.

God bless these boys, and let's get the mail to them by all means.

Reuther Becomes Man Alone

ATLANTIC CITY — For the moment Walter Reuther has the whip hand over the less rhetorical and more docile leaders of labor — but they're set to give him the whipping of his life.

The Detroit redhead wants a fight and he'll get it. Labor's old time heavyweights have him outnumbered, out-financed, outmaneuvered and isolated. That was obvious from the count of fraternal visitors at the United Auto Workers massive 21st Constitutional Convention.

Though thousands cheered him here, he walks alone. No other union of consequence, perhaps not even one of the 129 national labor organizations in the AFL-CIO will bolt with him.

The teachers, whom he has claimed as friends, have turned to the big Machinists union to help them raise a million dollar militancy fund.

A United Rubber Workers' official has just told me that his union has not even discussed the matter and is "following AFL-CIO policy." The government workers leader, John Griner, says rumors that the American Federation of Government Employees will leave the AFL-CIO are entirely false. And so it goes with old and new friends.

Reports of an alliance with the 2 million-member Teamsters union are as worthless as a Czarist ruble. The Teamster behemoth will rejoin the AFL-CIO by the end of 1969.

Informal talks between the labor federation and the Teamsters' brotherhood are as ubiquitous as a Reuther invective. There is, in fact, installment plan merging.

The Teamsters are officially part of dozens of AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Councils across the nation — and have worked closely with AFL-CIO unions in recent strikes.

THEY AWAIT only a Supreme Court rejection of Jim Hoffa's appeal from his five-year sentence for defrauding the Teamsters' Central States pension fund. This will mean he could not hold office in the huge union for many years — and the "Teamos" will roll back into the federation.

So will those old legions of the past, the United Mine Workers. This union's leaders await only the moment when the snow-white octogenarian John Llewellyn Lewis will fade from history.

Thus the AFL-CIO will grow mightier as Reuther grows lonelier. And the 73-year-old George Meany, who as they say inside labor "grows younger as Reuther grows older," will lead the most powerful labor phalanx of the free world.

Victor Riesel

He's so little worried about the man from Detroit that he plans barely to mention "Walter" at next Monday's AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting in Washington. Meany, an old vaudeville buff, argues more strongly about what Smith and Dale said in the '20s than he does about what Reuther said 20 minutes ago.

Meany has the AFL-CIO 29-man council with him unanimously — or almost so. There might be a lone champion of the auto union's torch bearer.

THE LAST THING Meany worries about is money. The federation has it.

In fact it can make a $500,000 annual profit if Reuther leaves. All it need do is raise the monthly per capita a penny a man—12 cents a year — and he takes in more than Reuther has been paying.

In the past year the auto union pleaded poverty and was "exonerated" from paying four months dues to the AFL-CIO.

So Reuther's ultimatum will lead to civil war on the labor front here and abroad.

Many leaders of the 3.5 million-member building and construction trades unions have been itching to get at the redhead. But under the AFL-CIO Constitution's article 21, which outlaws raiding, the auto union has been protected.

The burly veteran leaders have taken his taunts. Now they're ready to slug back. They'll move in on his skilled trades.

THEY'LL TRY to carve up his union by demanding that they get departmental jurisdiction over electricians, carpenters, pipefitters, etc. in plants big and small. They're fantastic tacticians. They've millions of dollars and battalions of lawyers.

They've battled American presidents and have won. They've fought off political parties. They took all of John Lewis' Shakespearean slings and arrows, and isolated the man who shook the earth when he strode this land. When he left the movement, as Walter Reuther now leaves them, he faded into obscurity.

The Miners dwindled. The AFL-CIO grew so that it now represents fully 35 per cent of the American labor force "eligible for unionization."

They may appear like the caricaturist's version of plumbers. They may talk like Damon Runyon characters. They may be the ponderous establishment and easy marks for Galbraithian and Reutherian professional mockery.

But they're the most agile and powerful organizers in this nation. They've taken Reuther's jibes for a long time.

Now they intend to do some cutting up of their own. Reuther has asked for it. He'll get it.

Paris Choice

Peace in Vietnam depends not merely on what happens in the Paris meetings during the next few months but on world opinion.

If history is to be repeated and powerful nations ignore the plight of the peoples of both North and South Vietnam who really want freedom and independence, the chances are the country will remain divided and the risk of another war will be increased.

The best thing that has occurred thus far is the selection of Paris as the place for peace negotiations. The United States did not name Paris, but officials in the America government are gratified that the North Vietnamese chose it.

Practically every Vietnamese leader of consequence with an education abroad went to a college or university in France. The French have had their fingers in the affairs of Indo-China for more than 150 years.

FRENCH IS a second language of all Vietnam and its inhabitants. Most of its schools were run by the French and were taught in that language.

French business interests developed the big coal deposits in North Vietnam, and even though France had to abandon its colonial power in Indo-China in 1954, contacts of French businessmen have continued.

Ho Chi Minh learned about communism in Paris just after World War I, and there met Chou En-Lai of Red China. When the Vietnamese think of Europe, they think of Paris. When they have money and the opportunity to travel, the first place they want to go is Paris.

The North Vietnamese Communists especially feel comfortable in Paris because there is a strong Communist party in France. President De Gaulle may be expected to play a role behind the scenes. He may or may not be friendly to the American viewpoint, but he certainly sees an advantage to the prestige of France if his regime should be instrumental in making peace in Vietnam.

Perhaps the principal development which will puzzle the American people will be the intensification of fighting in Vietnam from time to time. This, of course, has a specific purpose. The North Vietnamese want to make sure that any slowdown of military operations by them will not be interpreted as a willingness to surrender.

Meanwhile, there is in Washington somewhat the same attitude toward the fighting, but for different reasons. Sen. John Stennis, chairman of the preparedness subcommittee of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said in a speech Monday:

"When we stopped bombing North Vietnam, we opened up the war for the North Vietnamese to rebuild their roads, bridges, docks, factories, and other facilities necessary to the conduct of the war. . . .

"When we called off the bombing we gave them the opportunity to rebuild that damage without fear of further attack and they are using that time to their very best advantage. Our intelligence reports show that they are working night and day with flood-lights to repair vital bridges that are part of the pipeline used to transport war supplies to South Vietnam. . . . 'We have proof that they are able to move four to five times as much into South Vietnam when there is no fear of bombing than they could do if they were being bombed or were operating under the threat of bombing.'"

So it seems likely that each side will not wish to give the impression that they have abandoned the fighting. The real test will come when a formula for making peace is submitted, and here it is possible that neutral diplomats will be helpful.

SEN. STENNIS pointedly remarked in his address that, despite America's urgent pleas to its Western Allies for manpower assistance, no military help has been given by them to the U.S. forces in Vietnam. He added:

"Diplomatic pressure on their part now is absolutely essential and, unless it is forthcoming soon, they not only will have lost their right to complain and object to the course we might choose to follow in Vietnam, they will have also lost their right to call upon our men and our resources for their defense in Europe and elsewhere."

There can be some deadlocks for brief periods during a prolonged negotiation on the Vietnam War. The involvement of European countries in the discussions behind the scenes seems inevitable, and could be constructive.

Hancock Board Alters Plan For School Lunches

The bulk service plan now being used in the Hancock County school lunch program will be converted into a pre-packed system under action taken this week by the Board of Education.

The change will go into effect with the beginning of the new school term in September.

APPROVAL of the revision came after a comprehensive study of the Hancock system and other programs in a report filed by Crawford Cameron, who was named temporary head of the food system following the resignation in December of Lawrence Zeidler.

The packaged plan is expected to eliminate a number of problems that have been experienced with the present program since its inception in 1965.

It also was pointed out that the new plans will not be as costly to operate since the food waste will be eliminated and there will be a reduction in the number of servers required.

A saving also result in the elimination of clean-up procedures except at the food preparation center.

The need for replacing serving utensils also would be removed.

The cost of equipment for the new program is estimated at $50,000, but board members pointed that this would be canceled by the savings each year under a reduced labor force.

PREPARATION of all pre-packaged food will take place daily in a master kitchen at Weirton, with a precise head count of students to be served being made each morning, along with the collection of money for lunch tickets.

The meals then would be delivered in a refrigerated truck. At each school the "hot" items on the menu will be heated just prior to serving.

Board members said other benefits include a reduction in space requirements for both eating and serving, a reduction in major equipment and a cut in payroll and labor costs.

The only additional items needed to implement the program will be assembly line equipment. Plans call for some of the present equipment as well as several trucks to be sold.

Permit Applications Processed By Board

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus is processing an application for a new nightclub permit from Aurell Monty Muntean to operate the Cambridge Inn on the Salem Rd., Center Township, near Lisbon.

The board also is processing the ownership of a C2 carryout permit from Robert and Betty Freeman to the name of Betty Freeman of Betty's Grocery at 906 Wood St., Wellsville.

Driver Hurt Near Calcutta

A Negley man is "fair" today at City Hospital with injuries received in a one-car mishap Thursday on Route 170, four miles north of Calcutta.

Edward Harrison Beatty of Negley RD 1 suffered a laceration of the right arm, abrasions of the face, forehead and both knees and a possible fractured skull.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said a 1964 sedan operated by Beatty was southbound when it went out of control, veered off the right side of the road over an embankment and crashed into a tree.

Beatty was cited for reckless operation.

A city man was cited by the patrol as the result of a mishap involving three vehicles Thursday on Route 7 just outside the Rogers corporation limits.

Donald Chapman, 35, of 337 Ogden St. was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance after his truck rammed a sedan stopped for traffic, knocking the sedan into the rear of a 1967 truck, also halted for traffic ahead.

The 1967 truck operated by Robert P. Nicewander, 26, of Massillon was damaged moderately, and the sedan, driven by Clifford W. Brittain of Girard, received heavy damage to the rear and front. Chapman's truck was damaged moderately.

Brittain and his 73-year-old wife were taken to Salem City Hospital, and transferred to Northside Hospital in Youngstown.

Lisbon Potential Discussed Under Freeway System

LISBON — The Lisbon area could well be the site of a giant retail plaza serving all of Columbiana County once Route 11 is complete from East Liverpool to the Mahoning County line.

Horace McLean, senior partner in McLean & McGraw, Youngstown consulting engineers, told local Kiwanians Thursday it takes a population of 100,000 and over to support a big shopping center.

He said Lisbon is a logical site because it is in the center of the county and, with the opening of the freeway, will be accessible to the two largest population areas in the county — East Liverpool - Wellsville in the south and the Salem - East Palestine area in the north.

McLean has completed a land use study of Columbiana County as part of a comprehensive plan the firm is developing for the county Regional Planning Commission.

He emphasized that the development of a prosperous county community with more industries, good shopping areas and good transportation depends on the cooperation of the East Liverpool and Salem areas.

A. Monty Muntean, president, was in charge of the meeting at St. George parish hall. McLean was introduced by J. L. Morrissey, program chairman and director of the Regional Planning Commission.

Paul Barnhart Named Head Of Chester Lions

Paul Barnhart of 123 Carolina Ave. was elected president of the Chester Lions Club for 1968-69 during a meeting Thursday night at the Abrams residence on Louisiana Ave.

He succeeds William J. Moore.

Others named were: Donald Hood, first vice president; Donald Murray, second vice president; Harold West, third vice president; Robert Hobbs, secretary; Hugh Lilly, treasurer; Edward Loos, tail twister; Harold Ossman, Lion tamer; and Marvin Snyder and Sayre Graham, directors.

Barnhart, an employee of the Weirton Steel Co., is a lifelong resident of Chester. He attended West Liberty State College after being graduated from Chester High School.

He joined the Lions in 1962 and has served as secretary, second and first vice presidents. He has been chairman of many committees, has directed a club minstrel and has represented the organization at a state convention.

He is married to the former Helen Jones. They have two daughters.

The new officers will be installed during "Ladies Night" June 13.

Jerry D'Angelo and Larry Loudin were named to the committee to arrange the program.

In other business, Moore appointed Lilly and Clifton Huff to the auditing committee.

Murray, chairman, reported $580 realized from the broom sale held Monday night. A final report will be submitted at the May 23 meeting.

The purchase of a pair of eyeglasses for a student was approved.

Nineteen members attended.

Continuance Set In Beating Case

LISBON — Judge John Milligan of Stark County Juvenile Court had an easy day as visiting jurist here Thursday when a hearing failed to develop.

He continued until July 16 the state's case against Thomas Earich of E. Main St., Salineville, on the motion of Richard J. Clark of East Liverpool, assistant prosecuting attorney.

Earich is charged with contributing to the abuse of a Salineville boy, 16, by advising another juvenile boy to give him a beating.

Clark told Judge Milligan that he had conferred with Police Chief Gordon Sweeney, who filed the affidavit, and with the parents of the 16-year-old who was injured in the April 24 incident, and told them a solution "in this type of case is for someone to move from the area." Clark said the parents told him they had thought of this and are willing to do it if the court would grant them some time.

Judge Milligan was assigned to the case after Earich told Judge Louis Tobin he would prefer another judge because he had been before Judge Tobin on other occasions.

Ohio Marine Indicted On Threats To LBJ

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A Marine private from Ohio was indicted Thursday on two counts of threatening to kill President Johnson.

Named in the federal grand jury indictment was Pvt. Jimmie R. Powers, 17, of Dayton. Powers is accused of writing letters threatening the President while confined to the brig at the San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

Vacancies Still Exist In Southern Local Staff

SALINEVILLE — Four high school and three elementary teaching positions are still open, Thomas Leek, superintendent of the Southern Local School District, reported during the Board of Education meeting Thursday night in the Franklin Elementary School.

Leek said high school teachers still needed are for girls' physical education, two for mathematics and an assistant football coach.

LACK OF a school nurse position is the only major area where the district will not meet the state minimum standards which will go into effect July 1, the board learned during reading of a report.

The board ordered "No Trespassing" signs posted in the Wayne Elementary School area to curtail reported dragging and hot-rodding.

Recent purchases, made by the board include five typewriters for the typing class, 238 desks for the Junior High School and an extension ladder for the Franklin Elementary School, Leek reported.

The board also agreed to pay half the cost toward the purchase of a water cooler for the Salineville Elementary School. The Parent-Teacher Association will pay the rest, Leek said.

Approval was given to hire the Hicks roofing firm of New Philadelphia to inspect the roofs of the district schools and submit a recommendation for repairs.

Olen Boles of Salineville was hired as a full-time custodian at the Salineville Elementary school. Boles previously served as a part-time custodian.

An application for a bus driver post from Carl Brown of Salineville RD 2 was received and filed.

LEEK reported he had received a reply from the state approving a request from the board for a transportation survey. The survey will be made in the fall.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for fuel oil, gasoline and cafeteria supplies. They will be opened June 12 at 9 p.m.

The resignations of Ernest Stoltzfus and Mrs. Kathleen Lodge, elementary teachers at the Wayne School, were accepted.

Prior to the meeting, the board inspected the Franklin School building and discussed needed repairs.

Motorcyclist Badly Injured

A 19-year-old Hookstown area youth was injured seriously in a motorcycle mishap Thursday at 5:15 p. m.

Richard Dennis Boone of Hookstown RD 1 suffered a fractured collar bone and multiple abrasions and lacerations in the accident on Legislative Route 04046, four miles south of Hookstown.

Pennsylvania state police at Carnegie said Boone was southbound when his motorcycle started swaying back and forth across the road. The cycle flipped onto its side and Boone was thrown onto the road.

State police also investigated another accident in the area at 8:10 a. m.

Fred Faye Speer, 39, of Georgetown RD 1 was driving south on Route 168, three and six-tenths miles south of Hookstown, when her car struck two trees.

She told police she was driving south when another car came over the crest of a hill on the wrong side. She said she drove off the right side to avoid a collision, cut sharp to the left to avoid guardrails and lost control.

Endorsement Set For State Office

Mrs. Mae Hupp was endorsed for first state demi-chapeau during a meeting of the Hancock County 8 & 40 Salon 593 Wednesday night at the Chester American Legion home.

Mrs. Hupp, now second state demi-chapeau, will attend a convention July 21 in Huntington. Yearly reports were heard and filed with the state organization, Mrs. Thelma Merri-man, chapeau, said.

Games were played, with winners Mrs. Merri-man, Mrs. Alma Dalrymple, Mrs. Florence House and Mrs. Patty Hall. Mrs. Hupp received the mystery gift.

Mrs. House was the hostess. Officers will be elected June 12. Mrs. Hall will be hostess.

Five Are Treated At Hospital Here

A Georgetown area youth hurt in a fall while running was treated Thursday at City Hospital along with four others.

Robert Logston, son of Charles Logston of Georgetown RD 1, suffered a laceration of the chin in the fall.

Also treated were Roosevelt Suggs Jr. of 335 Ohio Ave., Midland, a right thumb laceration on a cast iron pipe; Cathy L. Williams, daughter of Donald Williams of the Finley Rd., Chester, a laceration of the left hand on glass in a fall.

the Pennsylvania state police were summoned.

Officers said entry was gained by breaking a plate glass patio door. The loss included $600 worth of meat and frozen foods, $200 in liquor and a $500 color television set.

Another television set was knocked from a counter and damaged. Candy and cigarette machines were broken and cigars were stolen. Officers estimated $150 damage to other locks and doors.

A club spokesman said he believes the loss is covered by insurance.

Garbage cans were emptied and apparently used to carry out the loot. Entry to the grounds was gained by driving around a locked iron gate and over some shrubbery.

The thieves did not gain entry to the main office or storeroom. Patrolman Roy Hohenshell is investigating for the Industry police.

Wellsville VFW Sets Poppy Sale For Saturday

The annual "Poppy Day" sale will be conducted Saturday in Wellsville by Pvt. Tommy Mackall Post 5647 Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Plans for the event were completed at a special meeting this week.

Comdr. Dean Morgan appointed Ike Crawford as general chairman. Mrs. Lucille Reed of the Auxiliary and other women will assist.

A social for all paid-up members will be held tonight. A committee of Fred Payne, Albert O'Rourke, Jim Daniels, Fred Leughey and Dohman Rosenlieb will be in charge.

The post was host for the County Council meeting Wednesday night. May 18 has been set for the annual installation of officers, with a dance and buffet lunch being planned. All newly-elected officers will be in charge of the event.

Carl Holmes, Larry Russell and Fred Cosgrove were enrolled as new members. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday.

Blankets Stolen During Charges In Driving Case

LISBON — Two Army blankets were stolen from the car of a driver being formally charged with reckless operation about 11 p. m. Thursday at Columbiana County Southwest Court here.

An Ohio highway patrolman arrested George A. Sinclair of 1528 Sinclair Ave., Steubenville and brought him to make out the affidavit. The car was parked on the Square in front of the court.

David Blom of S. Vine St. yesterday reported the theft of his bicycle.

Lynn A. Goyak, 25, of 548 Penn. Ave., Midland, forfeited a $15 bond this morning in mayor's court. Police arrested him at 3 a. m. for passing on the double yellow line.

Mayor Clyde B. Pike acquitted two local drivers charged with reckless operation. They are Daniel K. Duncan, 20, who backed off the end of a ramp April 15, and Russell J. Sweeney, whose car skidded into a gasoline pump Sunday at Conn's Service Station.

The world's first passive communications satellite — Echo I — has circled the earth more than 35,600 times since it was hurled aloft in August 1960. The battered plastic globe is expected to tumble out of orbit sometime in 1968.

Trailer Hurts Area Man On Webber Way

A 53-year-old district man is in "fair" condition at City Hospital with internal injuries suffered late Thursday afternoon when a small house trailer pulled by an auto passed over his body in a traffic mishap on Webber Way at Dresden Ave.

Orland Rice of Waterford Park Race Track was injured by a trailer towed by a 1967 model auto driven by Ralph M. Dean, 69, of Kalamazoo, Mich., police reported.

Two witnesses told Patrolman Howard E. Frantz that Rice stepped off a Webber Way curb directly in front of the trailer as the Michigan man turned onto Webber Way from Dresden Ave. The mishap was timed at 5:41.

Dean told police he turned west onto Webber Way from Dresden and saw a man standing on the sidewalk at the intersection. A moment later, he said, he heard someone shout for him to halt.

Robert Stoddard of 637 1/2 St. Clair Ave. and James Shook of 519 Broadway, Wellsville, witnessed the mishap. They told the officer Rice "stepped right in front of the trailer, and the trailer passed over him."

In a freak mishap earlier yesterday afternoon, the windshield of a Midland man's car was broken by a stone hurled from school bus, police said.

Lewis Steele, 27, of 556 Ohio

Ave., Midland, told officers he was driving south on St. Clair Ave. near Franklin St. about 2:40 p.m. when the stone was hurled from beneath the rear wheel of the northbound bus and broke the windshield of his 1965 four-door sedan. The 1965 model bus, owned by the Board of Education, was driven by John F. Cunningham, 38, of 313 Market St. Police emphasized there was no collision between the two vehicles.

Couple Resides In Vanport After South Carolina Trip

Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie Winters are residing in the Van Buren Homes at Vanport following a honeymoon to Myrtle Beach, S. C.

They were married April 20 at the Shippingport Methodist Church by the Rev. Alexander Haines and the Rev. S. H. Estel.

The bride is the former Helen Arlene Vuletic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Vuletic of Industry RD 1, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Winters of Monaca.

THEY WERE united in a double-ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of sheer over taffeta fashioned with a high, scalloped lace-edge neckline and long tapered sleeves. The empire bodice and skirt was highlighted by a matching petal headpiece trimmed with crystal and pearl, which held a silk illusion veil.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations, yellow roses and streamers tied with lovers knots.

Mrs. Donna Vuletic, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a blue chiffon cage gown, with maribou trim on elbow-length sleeves. Her ribbon bow had a bouffant veil and her bouquet was lilies of the valley centered with carnations and tied with streamers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Viola Mahon, Miss Barbara Barrett and Miss Linda Verzella, Miss Dorothy M. Mahon was a junior bridesmaid. They wore maids dresses identical to those of the matron of honor.

Lanny M. Winters was the best man. Ushers were Nicholas Vuletic, Kenneth Vuletic, Raymond Scott Jr. and Jerry Verzella.

Mrs. Raymond Scott played traditional music and Kenneth Vuletic was soloist.

Mrs. Vuletic wore a three-piece Navy blue suit with yellow accessories and Mrs. Winters a white knit dress with orange accessories.

A RECEPTION for 225 followed at the Hookstown Grange Hall. A memory candle centerpiece was used on the bridal table. Decorations included wedding bells and streamers.

Mrs. Lena Pekich was in charge of the aides.

The bride, a graduate of Western Beaver High School, is a secretary at the Allencrest Juvenile Detention Home.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Rochester High School, is employed as a boiler attendant for the Duquesne Light Co.

New Officers Are Elected By Catholic Women's Club

Mrs. David Doyle of Wellsville was named president of the Catholic Women's Study Club during the annual business meeting Wednesday night with Mrs. Charles Finley of Sunrise Hills, Midland.

Others elected were Mrs. Rolando Stover, vice president; Mrs. Clarence Peters, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Jackson, treasurer.

Installation will take place at the closing dinner meeting May 22 at the Cap and Whip at Waterford Park. Mrs. Louis Tobin, Mrs. R. J. Bonistalli and Mrs. Gerald Costello are in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Raymond Akins, president, opened the meeting with a prayer in memory of the late Miss Dolores Hughes.

Contributions were allocated for the libraries at the following parochial schools — St. Aloisius in East Liverpool, Immaculate Conception in Wellsville and Presentation in Midland.

Mrs. Tobin announced the annual tea of the Women's Hospital Auxiliary Wednesday at the Harker — Metsch Nurses residence. She also reported on the Pottery Festival to be held June 20-22.

Refreshments were served 21 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Scully. A "strawberry" theme predominated in buffet table appointments, decorations and refreshments. The table was covered with a white linen, cutwork cloth and centered with an antique glass dome covering a pedestal arrangement of dishes upon which were placed strawberries. Red tapers in silver candelabra completed the setting. Mrs. Akins poured at the silver service.

ers of Faith," during the meeting of the Women's Association of the First United Presbyterian Church Wednesday night in the social rooms.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Haddock and the dedication of the least coin was led by Mrs. Gladys Lytton.

Mrs. Olin Doane presided for business and announced a special meeting for May 26 at 5 p. m. at the church. The subject will be "Adult Education of Church Programs."

A report of the spring Presbyterial was given by Mrs. Carl Durham. Mrs. Lytton and Mrs. Earl Lowers also attended. The synodical meeting will be June 24-25 at Davis and Elkins College.

Mrs. Leonard Copestick reported a rummage sale Oct. 20-27 at the Ewing Building in Chester. A donation of $25 was authorized for the Rescue Mission in East Liverpool.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Carnahan. A floral arrangement centered the table. The next meeting will be June 12 at the church.

Mrs. Barbara Clutter and Mrs. Evelyn Walker were awarded prizes for 500 when Mrs. Donna Deemer entertained the Lazy Eight Club Wednesday night in her home at New Cumberland RD 1.

Two tables were in play, with the travel prize won by Mrs. Ruth Little. Refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Clutter.

Eastern Star Group Here Holds Annual Inspection

The annual inspection of Crystal Chapter 18, Order of Eastern Star, took place Wednesday night at the Masonic Temple, with 145 present.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace, deputy grand matron, and member of Canton Delta Chapter 539, was inspecting officer.

She was introduced with honors by Mrs. Pat Connor, conductress, and Mrs. Audrey Johnson, associate, who also presented Mrs. Arlene Blackburn, grand representative to South Carolina.

RECOGNITION was given 13 worthy matrons and eight worthy patrons of District 13 and 16 past matrons and five past patrons of the local chapter.

During the ritualistic work, four candidates were initiated and received Bibles, with Richard Kidder, marshal, making the presentation.

Mrs. Jackie Mitcheson, worthy matron, and her husband, Frank Mitcheson, worthy patron, presided. The East was decorated with five white wicker baskets holding flowers in the colors of the star points and white praying hands plaques. A figurine of a worthy matron and a wicker basket of daisies and iris featured the West. Mrs. Freida Adkins arranged decorations.

Mrs. Olive Kress, a past matron, presented 25-year membership pins to Mrs. Agnes Barrett, Mrs. Edwinna Craven and Mrs. Grace Miller. They will be sent to Mrs. Alice McVicker and Mrs. Jane Capper, residing in California.

The charter was draped for the late Mrs. Harriet Ryan, past grand matron.

The sunshine ESTAR fund was collected by Miss Wanda Wilson and Mrs. Millie Hopper, pages.

Mrs. Nellie Birch, Mrs. Dolores Hopper and Mrs. Martha Mitcheson registered guests from Canton, Augusta, Lisbon, East Palestine, Negley, Hanover, Louisville, Hammondsville, Wellsville, Massillon, Columbiana, Minerva and Salem.

REFRESHMENTS were served in the dining room by members of the Crystal Club. Mrs. Ruth Mackey was chairman and Mrs. Pearl Capehart co-chairman.

The tables were decorated with wicker May baskets holding spring flowers. The centerpiece featured an arrangement of purple and gold cone-shaped candles nestled in a base of two-tone color of purple maline interspersed with violet corsages. Miniature floral baskets were favors. The decorating committee included Mrs. Phyllis Eaton, chairman, Mrs. Nellie Birch and Mrs. Frances Bussard.

Fire Department Potential Sifted

The American Insurance Association has filed with Mayor George E. Witshaw and city department heads copies of a six-page report with recommendations for upgrading the city's firefighting potential with addition of personnel, new equipment, additional training and other innovations.

The report is based on a survey made in April and May of 1967 by the national agency, successor to the National Board of Fire Underwriters. The study, made in cooperation with the Ohio Inspection Bureau, sets up guidelines used in part in determining the city's fire insurance rates.

The city's classification for insurance purposes remains unchanged in Class 6. It was the first such study made since 1950.

SOME OF the recommendations made in the study had been placed in effect long before the report was filed, the mayor pointed out. For instance, it suggests a city building code and inspection system, both of which now are an actuality.

The report is broken up into four sections. It analyzes the city water department plant and distribution system and the fire department equipment and operations and then comments on suggested improvements in each.

One of the report's chief recommendations calls for "at least four men, including a company officer," to be on duty with each company at all times. This, in effect, calls for boosting the personnel in the three outlying stations from two men to four men. The association's reports always find the department undermanned by its standards. The force totals 31.

The report also asks that "suitable training facilities be provided in an area where use of smoke and water will not be restricted." It suggests establishment of an additional ladder company, adding that each pumper and ladder truck should be "equipped with tools and appliances needed for efficient operations."

IT ALSO proposes that all hoses should be tested annually at a pressure of at least 250 pounds per square inch and that a program be initiated for replacement of all hose over 10 years old. It suggests that each company be provided with at least 2,000 feet of 2 1/2-inch hose and that each station be equipped with hose drying and storage facilities.

It also suggests: "That complete and up-to-date rules and regulations be adopted officially, that a copy be made available to each member of the department and that all provisions be enforced strictly.

"That a program of rehabilitation of fire stations be adopted and that additional refueling facilities be provided with reliable provisions for delivering fuel to the apparatus at extensive fires.

"That company members be retired at age 62 and that all fire personnel over 55 be given an annual medical examination."

Pointing out that the city's old private fire alarm system virtually has ceased to exist, the study recommends that a new system be installed in the so-called "high value district" and later extended to other areas.

Most alarms are received by telephone, with two trunk lines arranged for progressive operation and one line reserved for emergency calls, the report pointed out. Individual lines extend to each fire station, the police headquarters and individual fire department offices, it said.

IF ALL firemen leave Central Station on a call, the man who took the telephone call is required to preset the switch board so that an outlying station or the police department may answer further calls, the report said.

"However, this vital procedure has been overlooked at times in the past," it said. "In addition on some alarms all fire department companies and personnel may be responding or relocating, leaving no department personnel on duty to answer the telephone." The report said a standard procedure is needed to assure the police department will answer the phone when no fire department personnel are available.

The report points out that the department has four fire engines, an increase of one since 1950, one ladder company and a rescue truck.

"This is an adequate number of engine companies, but an inadequate number of ladder companies," the report says, recommending an additional ladder truck. "The distribution of existing companies is generally good."

The data on the water department notes there are 68.79 miles of mains 4-inch or larger, of which 17.87 miles are 6-inch, and 27.40 miles are 4-inch. The average valve spacing in the business district is 485 feet and 650 feet in residential area, it notes.

The report points out that the city has 331 fire hydrants, calling the spacing "from 'good' to 'wide'." It also notes that the line pressures range from 75 to 115 pounds per square inch in the high service area, 84 to 134 in the low service area and 20 to 208 in the standpipe service.

It suggests that the city clean or replace water lines which are "fouled" and therefore have reduced carrying capacities. It should install additional hydrants in residential districts so that the average area served by each will not exceed 110,000 square feet, the report says.

The report also suggests that the alarm system be rigged so that the water department is aware of all fire calls. In case of a major fire, a water department employee should go to the scene to cooperate with firemen, it adds.

The report notes that Chief Alfred VanDyne makes fire safety inspections of buildings in his role as a deputy state fire marshal. It adds that "owners of existing defectively constructed buildings which involve serious life hazard or which are so located as to form conflagration breeders be required to protect floor, fire wall and exposed window openings."

DEAD SEA SCROLLS are housed in the Shrine of the Book at the Israel Museum in Jerusalem. Display case is designed so that it can be lowered below ground in event of emergency.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

'Julia' Debated Before She Appears

"I haven't been given a franchise to preach, but I have an obligation to entertain," says writer-producer Hal Kanter, who's getting quite irritated over some of the things already being said and written about his new comedy series for next season called "Julia."

Hal Humphrey

The series stars Diahann Carroll, first Negro actress to star in a TV series. She plays a registered nurse, widowed with a 6-year-old son and looking for a job in the first episode.

"I DON'T KNOW yet myself what will be in the third show, yet a couple of critics have said the series won't deal truthfully with the Negro problem," snaps Kanter.

"First of all, there is no Negro problem. It's an American problem. I wrote it for a Negro, but why can't I show she has some of the same problems a white girl has without being criticized for being evasive?"

As Kanter says here at the beginning, he has no franchise to preach on TV. He's also doing a comedy primarily and feels that the fact Miss Carroll is in the show is statement enough to make at this point. If the series gets good public acceptance, Kanter plans to dip further into the racial aspects, but with humor.

"THERE WILL BE a lot of shows where the subject of her being a Negro never comes up," says Kanter. "Some of the critics may fear this, but my only fear is the fear of being a bore."

"I might add that neither the sponsor nor NBC has told me what to do. NBC did suggest Miss Carroll for the role, which was fine with me, because I think she's perfect for it."

One in-depth critic bemoans the fact that Julia Baker (Miss Carroll) is a widow in the series, a situation which he claims ironically "contributes to the castration theme in the history of the American Negro male."

"I made her a widow, because I liked the idea of an attractive gal raising a small son to whom she'd have to play both mother and father, and not to contribute to any sociological theme," Kanter explains.

ROBERT HOOKS, the Negro actor who played in ABC's "N.Y.P.D." series this season, prophesies that since TV programs are written and produced by whites for whites, "you're not going to get an honest picture of Negro life."

What Hooks didn't know was that Kanter had hired three Negro writers — Robert Goodwin, Harry Dolan and Gene Boland — "to keep me straight not only on Negro reactions, but white reaction to Negroes."

In the first episode, for example, Julia calls the police from a white neighbor's apartment after finding her boy is missing. When the police come in, it's the white neighbor they walk up to first and address as "Mrs. Baker."

"Now I never have thought of that twist," says Kanter. "It came from one of the Negro writers."

MISS CARROLL herself agrees with those who claim the series is a fantasy world as far as most Negroes are concerned and that they therefore won't watch it.

"A show like Julia, though, is important for what it does for the white community," she says. "Like most minorities, Negroes are sensitive to the majority. They know more about whites than whites know about them. Julia will be worthwhile if it changes that imbalance a little."

Kanter still shakes his head in disbelief over all this analysis of his series before it's even been seen. But no one has seen fit to mention that the series contains no laugh-track at its best — although this is a revolutionary change from the usual situation comedy format.

AS KANTER also says, a series called "The Goldbergs" was on the air for years without once bringing up the anti-Semitism that Jews experience, yet no critics that he remembers ever decried this as a shortcoming in the series.

The civil rights struggle in this country evidently has keyed up everyone to a level of criticism where when something is done to integrate a TV program it becomes a major issue and a subject for the usual misunderstanding.

Gilligan Will Meet With RFK Monday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Senate nominee John J. Gilligan is among Ohio's delegates to the Democratic national convention who will meet here Monday night with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The New York senator will be here on the eve of the crucial Nebraska primary to drum up support among Ohio convention delegates for his presidential campaign.

Gilligan, riding the tide of victory in Tuesday's Ohio primary upset of Sen. Frank J. Lausche, said Thursday night he will be here to talk to Kennedy and to take care of other matters.

Kennedy has sent letters to each of the delegate, inviting them to meet him at a reception in a downtown Columbus hotel.

Panel Studying Bridge Joint As Cause Of Span's Collapse

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A federal panel concentrated on one point today when it wound up a four-day hearing in its investigations of the Silver Bridge collapse last December.

The hearing is part of the long investigation of the bridge collapse on Dec. 15 at Point Pleasant, W. Va., with 42 persons killed and four others missing.

Panel members were to study a bridge joint identified as C-13 today. The matter also came under scrutiny during Thursday's session.

The bridge joint, investigators were told, holds the key to the bridge collapse because a foot-long steel pin weighing 350 pounds is missing from it. Dr. G. K. Gillen, a civil engineer who is also probing the bridge crash for the state of West Virginia, told the panel could have been the cause of the collapse.

Rear Adm. Louis M. Thayer, who heads the panel, questioned Gillen about the pin.

Woman, 70, Who Raised 18 Children, Mother Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Elizabeth Bodine, 1968 Mother of the Year, raised her 18 children on a farm in North Dakota. Saying too much freedom is not good for children, she believes that it is better when they have chores to do.

Mrs. Bodine's guidance has paid off. The numerous offspring of this 70-year-old native of Poland have made their mark in America. They include a Navy officer, a retired Air Force colonel, three teachers, two nurses, a lawyer, a football coach and a baseball coach.

Her family, including 80 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, is spread from Minnesota to California although six of the children make their homes in North Dakota.

When they are not at their own home in Velva, N.D., Mrs. Bodine and her husband, Frank, a retired farmer, visit the children's homes, stopping about a month at each place.

Mrs. Bodine, who came to the United States with her parents in 1913, was named the 1968 award winner Thursday in a candlelight ceremony at the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Asked her advice for young mothers today, Mrs. Bodine replied: "I think religion is the basis of a family. Religion came first in our house."

She said that mothers and children today have more freedom because of the conveniences of modern life. She recalled that electricity did not come to their farm until 1945.

Mrs. Bodine said she was particularly proud that 16 of her 18 children had attended college. She frowns on miniskirts and hippies.

"We can't all agree on everything. But a difference of view should not be taken as a split between Socialist nations," he said.

Reason To Be Proud

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Ed M. Harrison recently completed a 50-mile swim, undertaken a little at a time—25 yards a day—over the course of several months, and when he did he climbed from the water and yelled: "Hooray for my side!" He had reason to be proud. He's 81 years old.

5th-Grader Wins Midland Contest Held By Chamber

Miss Pamela Muslovski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Muslovski of 436 Midland Ave., expressed deep feeling in an essay entitled "What Mother's Day Means To Me."

Because of this, her selection was judged winner of the annual Mother's Day essay contest sponsored by the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce.

Pamela is a fifth grader at Presentation Catholic School. Following is the context of her essay:

"THE DAY for ladies that is most waited for is Mother's Day. It is a day most mothers wait for."

"To me it means as a flower towards the ground. As a flower puts forth wonderful blossoms, Mother's Day puts forth wonderful thoughts. It comes in time for the blooming of wonderful flowers. It means to give love and consideration for your mother, not only on Mother's Day but on every other day. On Mother's Day you give a special kind of love, and consideration should be given on this day."

"When you are helpful you expect something back. When you were a baby you couldn't do all these things. Think back and remember all the things she did for you. When you were sick she helped you; when you were lonely, she played with you; and when you were hungry, she fed you."

"All I think is that there should be a Mother's Day in every house."

GLORIA Urosevic, fourth grader at the 4th St. School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milija Urosevic of 728 Penn Ave., Midland, won second place. Third place was won by Beverly Marcum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Marcum of 637 Beaver Ave., Midland. Beverly is in the sixth grade at Presentation School.

The essays were judged by the Midland Junior Women's Club. Mrs. Dorothy Ferretjans is the Chamber's essay contest chairman.

Paper Reports

Krabach To Get Cincinnati Post

CINCINNATI (AP) — Richard L. Krabach, state finance director, had little comment after learning of a Cincinnati newspaper's report that he would be chosen for the city managership.

"Nothing has been said by Cincinnati officials and nothing has been said by me," he said Thursday night.

The Cincinnati Enquirer in its editions this morning said: "Word he (Krabach) was in line for the job as R.A. Anderregg, Hamilton County administrator, withdrew as an applicant for the post. Anderregg had been considered a front-runner for the job."

The newspaper said Krabach would receive a salary in the $50,000 range — approximately $18,000 more than the present manager draws.

He has been Ohio's finance director since Gov. James A. Rhodes took office in 1963.

William C. Wichman resigned as city manager April 12 and, William A. McClain has been acting manager since.

Thailand, a nation about three-fourths the size of Texas, has 23,000 Buddhist monasteries.

State Will Turn Again To Court In Road Fight

LISBON — The question of vacating 6-100ths of a mile of a secondary road for Route 11 is headed for court as fast as the law allows.

P. E. Masheter, Ohio director of highways, Thursday again requested Columbiana County commissioners to vacate a portion of Sand Bank Rd. to provide a crossover for the Lake Erie - to - Ohio River Freeway now under construction.

This is the vacation refused by the commissioners after a public hearing Jan. 29 at the Courthouse.

SAND BANK begins at Route 344 at the Valley Golf Course west of Columbiana and runs west about 1.5 miles to a junction with Beeson Mill Rd., running north and south between Route 344 and Route 14 alternate.

Route 11 will cross Sand Bank about six-tenths of a mile west of the Valley Golf clubhouse. The secondary road is also known as Cherry Fork Rd. and is listed on the new county highway maps as Township Rd. 888. Old maps identified it as 880.

Opponents of the vacation said the road is used as a shortcut by Washingtonville and Salem area residents working in Columbiana industries. They said the state should build a bridge to carry Route 11 over the road. They argue that blocking the road with Route 11 would destroy the industrial potential of a large area north of the Penn Central tracks.

Ralph Swartz of the highway department's engineering section said not enough vehicles use the township road to justify spending $350,000 to build a bridge.

THE STATE appealed to Common Pleas Court March 1 from the commissioner's decision, but withdrew the action April 12 after Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis, acting for the commissioners, asked that the appeal be dismissed because it was not filed within the statutory 30-day period. This led the opponents to believe they had won the case and they would get a bridge over sand bank.

The request for vacation was resubmitted to the commissioners "due to a revision of the construction plan." A drawing showed that the driveway - type turnarounds originally designed for the township road dead-ends on either side of Route 11 have been changed to turning circles with a 40-foot radius.

Swartz and the commissioners discussed the latest request yesterday at the Courthouse. Chairman Charles J. Gause told the engineer the commissioners will not call for another public hearing and will stand on their Jan. 29 decision.

Gause said Swartz replied that the state will appeal again to Common Pleas Court if the commissioners do not, before the expiration of 30 days allowed them by law, schedule another public hearing.

Tree, Shrub Damage Seen

Cicadas Due To Appear After 17-Year Absence

LISBON — The 17-year cicadas will come out of the ground by the millions any day now and fly to nearby trees and shrubs.

Their parents last appeared above ground in this area in 1951 when they caused serious injury to young fruit trees and damaged many other trees and ornamental shrubs.

Nineteen persons attended two "cicada" meetings scheduled Wednesday by the County Extension Service office.

Dr. Howard Forsythe, entomologist at the agricultural research and development center at Wooster, spoke to four in the afternoon at Salem Memorial Building and to 15 last night at Lisbon Village Hall.

He said cicadas will damage approximately 250 kinds of trees and shrubs — even poison ivy. Pine and spruce escape for some unexplained reason.

Incorrectly called "locusts," ("grasshoppers are locusts," Dr. Forsythe said) the cicadas are due within a few days in a five-county area in Eastern Ohio. The 1968 emergence zone includes most of Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull, the northern part of Jefferson and the southeastern corner of Ash-tabula. Other sections of Ohio have cicada emergence dates of 1970, 1974 and 1982.

THE MALES raise the racket — that monotonous high-pitched drone — but the females do the damage.

Adult cicadas cause no visible feeding injury to plants. The damage is done by the female's ovi-depositor, a tiny bayonet which cuts slits into twigs. The eggs are deposited in these slits.

Twigs in which many slits have been made often are broken or partially broken from the branches. In young fruit trees, this injury can set back normal growth and provide shelter for other insects.

The females show a preference for oak, maple, apple, dogwood and nut trees. Dr. Forsythe said commercial fruit growers, nurserymen and homeowners should plan to protect their plants or be ready to accept damage.

Most of the adults emerge during a short period of time. They probably will be present until early July since they live from four to six weeks.

The eggs hatch in about six weeks and the young nymphs drop to the ground, burrow into the soil and attach to a root which will be its food source. They will remain there until another signal to emerge some warm May day in 1985.

DISCUSSING non-chemical control, Dr. Forsythe said homeowners can cover young trees and shrubs with an open weave cloth. If cloth is not used, pruning after the cicadas have disappeared will remove most of the injured branches.

Dr. Forsythe said fruit growers and nurserymen can use the insecticide Carbaryl (Sevin) at two pounds of 50 per cent wettable powder per 100 gallons of water. This should be applied when adults first begin to emerge from their skins. Applications should be repeated at five-to seven-day intervals since swarms may fly in from other areas.

He warned that Carbaryl should not be applied to producing apple trees within 30 days of full bloom since it can cause excessive fruit thinning. It may be used to within one day of harvest, however.

Homeowners who wish to spray may use Carbaryl at the rate of two teaspoons of the 50 per cent wettable powder per gallon of water and apply it weekly.

Honor Slated For Lemal In 'Police Week'

The Fraternal Order of Police Lodge plans a special tribute to Paul Lemal, a retired 25-year veteran of the local force, during the annual local observance of National Police Week, which will open Sunday.

"Paul Lemal Night" will be marked during the policeman's ball Saturday, May 18, at the Elks Lodge. A special presentation is planned.

Patrolmen Jerry F. Adkins and Karl W. Sample comprise the committee in charge of the dance. "The Rhythmairs" orchestra will furnish music. Tickets are available from any officer.

Lemal retired from the force about two years ago. He served many years as desk officer at headquarters on the daylight turn. The FOP has scheduled a tribute for him at the time, but it was canceled because of the death of Capt. Robert H. Pyle. Lemal now is a radio dispatcher at Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan's headquarters in Lisbon.

Another highlight of the week will be the annual observance of Police Officers' Memorial Day next Wednesday. A wreath will be placed in front of City Hall during a ceremony in tribute to law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in line of duty.

Patrolman James Buckley is president of the FOP. The "Police Week" committee is comprised of Capt. Kenneth H. Mooney, Patrolmen H. Clyde Dillon and Dwight Garvey and Det. William A. Devon.

May 22 Performances Set

2 Circus Shows Slated By Boys Football Group

Two performances of the King Brothers Circus will be sponsored May 22 in the East End by the Bill Booth Little League Football, Inc.

The circus will present its acts and exhibitions at 4 and 8 p.m. at the Pennsylvania Ave. lot adjacent to the Thorofare Market.

The league's share of the proceeds will be used for the operations of the organization.

The Zamberla troupe of trampoline artists, with their triple somersault, will be seen, along with the Van Loos Sisters, acrobats and gymnasts, newly recruited from Austria; Napoleon, the man who stands on one finger; the Robys, contortionists; the Apollo troupe of unicyclists from Sweden; the Silverton trio dancers on the tight wire; other acts — including clowns headed by Tad O'Brien; Carl Clair, Fred DeWolf and Harry Yose.

The herd of "Go-Go" elephants will head the animal display.

Some 250 people are with the circus which each season visits more than 20 states and 200 cities.

Floyd King, one of the brothers who established the circus in 1919, is still active in the management of the show which represents an investment of $250,000, with a daily expense of $2,500.

Program Slated On Mother's Day

A Mother's Day program will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Eagles Lodge.

A mother of the year will be selected and prizes will be given to the oldest and youngest mother present.

Councilman Norm Bucher will be guest speaker and Doyle Richardson will be master of ceremonies.

The Salvation Army will conduct services.

Capt. James Cook charted Australia's coasts in the 1770s.

9 Men Retire At Crucible

MR. KOSANOVIC

MR. PEEL

MR. KRAUS

Two foremen and nine production and maintenance employees have retired from the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Corp.

Richard F. Andrews and George Hornick of East Liverpool are the retiring foremen.

Andrews, who retired May 1 with 39 years service in the Finishing Mills, was a turn foreman in the former 12-18-inch mill. He was a foreman 30 years and started as a laborer in the Bar Mill. He worked also as a shear recorder, furnace recorder, stocker, helper and shipper in both mills.

A member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, he is married and has a son, Richard F. Andrews Jr. of East Liverpool, and one grandchild.

HORNICK, a turn foreman-stocking in the Open Hearth Department, retired with 41 years service.

He joined the Midland Division in 1926, working briefly in the Open Hearth, Blast Furnace and the Stripper Building. He became permanently employed in the Open Hearth in 1927, working first on the pouring platform. He also worked as a steel pourer mold yard foreman, pit foreman, turn foreman and melter. He has been a foreman since 1942.

Married, he has two sons, David Hornick of Bethel Park, Pa., and George Hornick Jr. of East Liverpool, and a daughter, Mrs. Norma Kaiser of Chicago and five grandchildren.

SVETKO Kosanovic of Midland, with nearly 42 years service, is one of nine production and maintenance employees who have retired.

A steel pourer the last 20 years, he started in 1926 and spent his entire employment in the Open Hearth Department. He was a pit laborer, worked in the mold yard and on the pouring platform and was a nozzle setter before he became a steel pourer.

He is married and has two sons, Joseph Kosanovic of Midland Heights, who is employed at the Midland Division, and Michael Kosanovic of Napoleon, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Anna May Yevak of Industry, and three grandchildren.

Raymond M. Peel of Darlington Rd 1 retired as a burner in the burning and welding department with 32 years service.

He joined the Open Hearth as a burner in 1936 and transferred in 1949 to the Burning and Welding Department. In 1950, he started welding in the machine shop and transferred back to the Open Hearth in 1960 as a burner.

KARL S. KRAUS of Midland has retired as an inspector in the Inspection Department with 32 years service.

Except for one month in the former Axle Mill, in 1936, when he joined the Midland Division, his employment has been in the Inspection Department.

He started as a grinder and became a bench inspector in the former 12-18-inch Finishing Mill before his promotion as a hot bed inspector in the Finishing Mills in 1943. For the last 19 years, he has been an inspector in the hot strip.

He is a member of American Legion Post 481 of Midland, the Eagles Lodge of Monongahela, Pa., and the Arrows Haymakers and Arroas Redmen of New Eagle, Pa.

A native of Etna, Pa., he has resided in Midland 32 years.

Others, who retired, are James L. Bevington, laborer, Blast Furnace, 22 years service, and Casper W. Kress, machinist, Metallurgical Department, 15 years service, both of East Liverpool.

THERON H. Merriman of Wellsville, drew bench operator, Finishing - East, 21 years; and John D. Tepsic of Arcadia, Pa., track maintenance, Transportation Department, 21 years.

Floyd Angus of East Liverpool retired with 25 years service, and Leslie C. Doughty of Industry Rd 1, a transferman in the DPC Department with nearly 16 years service, retired retro-active to Feb. 1.

10 Inducted Into Kiwanis

Ten members of the Kiwanis Club were inducted in special ceremonies Thursday at the Travelers Hotel. Norman Nicely, chairman of the Kiwanis education committee, was in charge.

Introduced by their sponsors and presented pins by Ronald Mason, president, were Tom Archer, manager of the Calcutta office of the Potters Savings & Loan Co.; Roger Babb, traffic manager of the YELP trucking firm; Carl Becker, manager of the Sears, Roebuck Co. Calcutta store.

Thomas Gerace, operator of Gerace's Market; William Hutchman, credit manager for the D. M. Ogilvie Co.; Tony Laveve, principal at East Junior High School; James Raffle, All-State Insurance Co. agent.

The Rev. Richard Wallarab, assistant pastor at Trinity United Presbyterian Church; Robert Stewart, Beaver Local High School teacher and Key Club adviser, and James Moore, East Liverpool High School teacher and Key Club adviser.

Harold Allison announced 20 members are needed to help clean grounds at the Tri-State Boot and Saddle Club Tuesday in preparation for a horse show the Kiwanis and Saddle Club will sponsor in June.

Shrine Club Aids Westfield Child

A 2-year-old Westfield boy was to enter Shriners Hospital at Erie, Pa., today for treatment of a bone affliction under sponsorship of the East Liverpool Shrine Club.

Douglas Manford Trevor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Trevor, will receive corrective treatment for a bone-softening disease of the pelvic area, Earl Roush, chairman, and Ed Monier, vice chairman of the crippled children's committee of the city club, said.

The boy's mother was to remain with him for a few days. Trevor is a millwright at the Crucible Steel Corp. The family has two other children.

Chrysler
Newport 2-Door Hardtop
Is there a big difference between Chrysler? Well, yes and no.
Our Chrysler Newport is different from those comparably equipped popular smaller cars. It's bigger. Roomier. And it has a big 383 cubic inch V-8 engine that runs on regular gas as standard equipment. It's a full-size luxury car, inside and out.
But compare monthly car payments. You'll find the only thing that even resembles those smaller cars is our price.
*Based on comparison of Manufacturers' Suggested Retail prices for Chrysler Newport and Ford LTD 2-door hardtops comparably equipped with 3-speed automatic transmission, power steering and AM radio, white sidewall tires and wheel covers. A 265 horsepower optional 8-cylinder engine is included on LTD to compare with Newport's standard 290 horsepower V-8 engine. Comparisons are based on 1/2 down and 36 monthly payments excluding other optional equipment, destination charges, state and local taxes, interest, insurance and licensing fees.

Ann
Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Since many people read your column and very little else, I hope you'll print my letter. It will help educate the ignorant people in this world who think they're being complimentary when in reality they're saving exactly the wrong thing.

I refer to the remarks made to the mother of an adopted child — and in the presence of the youngster, if you please.

Example: "My goodness, she looks so much like you, one never would believe she's not your own."

Here's another one: "Her real mother must have had a lovely disposition. She's such a dear, sweet child."

And the worst of all: "Was her mother married?"

I have answered some of these nitwits by saying, "The child IS my own. I'm her mother and of course I'm married."

Then they come back with — "well, you know what I mean." What can I say to these clods? — FORT LAUDERDALE.

Dear Ft. L.: You can say — "Yes, I know what you mean — but do you know what I mean?" If you look the person straight in the eye, your message will be unmistakable. And don't smile when you say it, Lady.

Not Guilty Plea

Dear Ann: I'm a 15-year-old girl who is awfully mixed up.

The first problem is that I'm a preacher's daughter and everybody expects me to be perfect.

My parents are very strict. They keep reminding me that I have to live up to my station in life. I hate feeling that I'm different from other girls my age but that's the way it is and I've accepted it.

Two weeks ago a very nice boy walked me home from choir practice. Just before we reached our block he kissed me. I felt so guilty I couldn't sleep.

A week later it happened again. Although I have prayed for forgiveness, I feel I should tell my parents but I can't bring myself to do it. I'm afraid I'll be restricted for life.

This morning I was so nervous I couldn't go to school. I told my mother I had a stomach ache (which was true) but I'm sure my worries caused it. Can you help? — ASHAMED OF MYSELF.

Dear Ashamed: You need to have a long talk with your school counselor. I hope she tells you that kissing a boy is not a sin and it is not necessary to report this to your parents.

It is normal for a 15-year-old girl to want to be kissed by a boy. So long as the boy keeps his hands where they belong and you keep the situation under control you need not feel guilty.

Friendship

Dear Ann: I've been dating steadily a 30-year-old woman who has never been married. My wife died four months ago. Louise works the night shift. I work the day shift. We get to see each other only on Sundays. I've told her I love her and she says she loves me, but for the past several weeks she's brought her 8-year-old nephew along on every date. He sits between us in the movies, between us in the car and stands there while we say good night at the door.

What do you make of this? — B.

Dear B: Don't look now, but you have an 8-year-old chaperone. Tell Louise you aren't happy with the gleesome threesome. If she brings the kid along after that, you'd better accept the fact that she loves you — like a brother.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

NEW YORK (AP) — The Ford Foundation has promised a $5-million grant to help New York City government improve its effectiveness through such tasks as training new officials, undertaking programs in police-community relations or projects in urban design and architecture.

Stage Figure Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Marion Lorne, 82, reigning star of the London stage for 35 years who became famous on American television as a flustered, stuttering comedienne, died Thursday. Most recently she was the flutery witch on television's "Betwitched" show. She also had appeared in the "Mr. Peepers" series and the old Garry Moore show.

Comic Writer Dies

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Harold L. Gray, 74, the man who created saucer-eyed Little Orphan Annie, ageless heroine of 44 years of comic strip adventures, died Thursday. The strip first appeared in the Chicago Tribune and New York Daily News in 1924. Gray had worked on the panel until the day before he entered the hospital 10 days ago.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Brighten Knife Handles

DEAR HELOISE: I bought a set of those expensive serrated knives, large cooking fork and spoon, potato masher, etc., that have handles made of plastic.

The handles were originally dark brown colored but I put them in my dishwasher and they turned light brown and dull. Please help me.

Heloise

dishes. It does accumulate you know...

All he did then was pour some salad oil on a facial tissue and rub it hard on the handles. The pretty finish came back to the handles quick as a flash as it they were new.

You might try it, honey-pie. It does work.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Our shower is over the bathtub and sometimes the soap causes my bare feet to slip.

I found my clear plastic rain boots for low heels make excellent "shower shoes."

The corrugated soles and heels prevent slipping and my feet get a good soaking in the water-filled shoes.

"CAUTIOUS NOW".

DEAR HELOISE: I found a way to keep children's stuffed toys looking nice.

They usually come with an attractive bow around the neck. I find that if I tie it in a tight double bow right off the bat, my child can't untie it and it still looks nice.

When I wash the toy, I wash the ribbon also. Then iron it and tie it back in a double bow.

It's almost as good as new.

MRS. G. K. P.

DEAR HELOISE: Probably a lot of us have wondered how to reheat leftover mashed potatoes without scorching them.

My aunt finally came up with a great idea.

She just wraps the potatoes in aluminum foil and heats them in the oven for a few minutes.

They are just as delicious as the first time and no pan to wash and no mess either.

C.F.

Works!

Heloise.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently when my daughter was confined to bed for a while, we discovered a new way of keeping her back from getting tired when sitting up to eat, draw, etc.

The pillows kept slipping so we decided to try the back rest we use at the beach. It worked just fine and can be adjusted to three different positions.

I do hope some of you readers with sick ones at home can use this idea.

LORENE LEVERTON

DEAR HELOISE: I purchased a bundle of vinyl remnants from the upholstery department of a large department store. With these inexpensive pieces I padded and covered our picnic benches to save snags in our stretch sportswear!

I also re-covered a chair seat for the boys' room with some of the scraps. The smaller pieces which were left were used to make placemats and coasters.

All are terrific and cost practically nothing.

Ohio Insurance Laws Study Being Made

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "It is obvious we can't do this job in a short period," said Rep. Robert E. Netzley R-7 Miami as his legislative committee began reviewing Ohio insurance laws.

The 11-member committee held its first meeting here Thursday and Netzley reported that "this is going to be a continuing study that may last up to two years."

Dennis Klembara Gets Greenwood Memorial Trophy

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

East Liverpool's Bernie Allen, inserted into the Washington Senators' starting lineup at second base, is beginning to hit.

Allen had two hits Tuesday night, scoring a run and batting one in, and connected for three safeties Wednesday night, including a triple, and got another RBI. Allen is now hitting .333, but the Senators continue to lose.

THE PERFECT game pitched by Jim (Catfish) Hunter of the Oakland A's only points up what has been going on all year — the pitchers are overpowering the hitters. Two teams in the American League are hitting below .200, none is hitting over .250. The National League batting averages are not much better. Pitchers are benefitting from an increased strike zone and better fielding because of bigger gloves. Top-flight relief pitching doesn't give the batter a chance to fatten up his average after the starter has been knocked out.

One suggestion to take something away from the pitchers is to lower the mound from its present 15-inch height to 12 inches, giving the pitcher a little less leverage and consequently less velocity on his pitches. Some people, of course, would rather see a two-hour pitcher's duel, but most fans would prefer a 10-8 three-hour slugfest.

KEN CUNNINGHAM, former East Liverpool all-state basketball player who later starred at Cincinnati U., has been named head basketball coach at Solon High School. Solon is in the south-east corner of Cuyahoga County and is a member of the Chagrin Valley Conference, one of the Cleveland suburban leagues. Cunningham for the last two years was an assistant coach at Kent Roosevelt. Solon was 16-5 this year and has one starter returning.

RON GUZIAK of Duquesne was selected by Seattle and Dave Reaser of West Virginia by San Francisco in the NBA draft. Xavier's Bob Quick went to Baltimore, Canton's Dick Cunningham of Murray State to Phoenix, Miami's Fred Foster to Cincinnati, Al Hairston of Bowling Green to Seattle, Marshall's Bob Allen to San Francisco, Walt Piatkowski of Bowling Green to San Francisco, Dayton's Bob Hooper to New York, Ashland's John Schetzle to San Diego, George Stone of Marshall to Los Angeles, Al Dixon of Bowling Green to Baltimore and Bob Redd of Marshall to New York.

With Ron Perranoski holding off the Angels for two innings off his first AL victory, Carew and Tovar teamed again in the 10th against Jim Weaver.

Ortega helped himself with his bat to his fourth victory, doubling in Washington's third run in the sixth. He scattered seven hits in seven innings before Baldwin came on.

Ed Stroud had singled and stole second before Ortega's hit and the outfielder scored the first Senators' run in the second when he beat out a bunt, stole second, took third on a balk and scored on a wild pitch.

The decisive run came in the fifth when Fred Valentine singled and moved around on Bill Bryan's hit and a ground out.

Peters went 8-2-3 innings, giving up only five hits, for the latest triumph which moved the still last-place Sox only 7½ games behind American League leading Baltimore.

Minnesota broke a third place tie with Oakland by coming from behind for a 4-3 10-inning triumph over California on Rod Carew's double and Cesar Tovar's single.

The Washington Senators snapped a six-game losing streak in the only other AL game, beating Boston 3-1 behind the pitching of Phil Ortega and Dave Baldwin.

Ward's first belt in the fifth inning tied the game at 2-2 and his second in the seventh off starter Lew Krausse put the White Sox ahead to stay.

Peters left after Rick Monday tripled with two out in the ninth, and Bob Locker got the last out as Chicago's always stingy pitchers continued to take advantage of the hitting windfall.

The victory was only the second against three losses for Peters, who won his last game by hitting a grand slam homer. Three days later, McCraw hit a slam for the normally light-hitting Sox and gave Joe Horlen his first victory.

Before that, it was homers by Ward, Davis and Aparicio that broke the Sox out of their horrible start and put some steam in their pennant hopes.

Carew, last year's Rookie-of-the-Year in the AL, took another step on the sophomore jinx by raising his average to .337 with three hits, scoring after each one.

He singled in the first inning, stole second and scored on Harmon Killebrew's single for a 1-0 Minnesota lead, but the Angels' Tom Satriano wiped that out with a three-run homer off Jim Merritt in the third.

After Ted Uhlaender's bunt single scored Tony Oliva, who had doubled, from second base in the seventh, Carew and Tovar singled in the eighth and Carew scored on Frank Kostro's pinch sacrifice fly for a 3-3 score.

Beaver Local Holds Banquet

Dennis Klembara, who quarterbacked the Fighting Beavers in football and played on the school's basketball and baseball teams, became the recipient of the Harry Greenwood Memorial Trophy, the highest award offered to an athlete, at Beaver Local High School at the All-Sports banquet Thursday night.

A crowd of 315 attended the fete and as Klembara was joined by five other athletes who were named Most Valuable Players in their respective sports.

Klembara, who is looking toward Youngstown University, also received a trophy for being named to the All-District team and gaining honorable mention on the all-state football team. He also was selected as captain of the baseball squad where he has been a four-year letterman. The award was given by Mrs. Lois Greenwood.

Other most valuable awards presented at the banquet, sponsored by the Beaver Local Boosters Club, went to Mike Piatt in basketball; Rex Campbell in baseball; Jim Nuzum in track; Sophomore Bob Eardley in golf and for the second year in a row, Jack Havice was named the most valuable wrestler. Havice in four years of competition had won 76 matches.

The Greenwood award, named in honor of the late Harry Greenwood, who served as clerk of the school district, is based on ability, character, scholarship, leadership and sportsmanship. The award is presented to a senior athlete who has maintained at least a 2.0 scholastic average.

Other athletes honored Thursday night with trophy presentations were:

Basketball — Dave Mason, leading rebounder; Piatt, who led the team in assists and defense; Campbell, leading scorer, and Dave Honger, captain's award.

Track — Tom Wolfe, a sophomore, most improved underclassman; Nuzum, captains award. The high point trophy in track won't be decided until after the District meet tonight.

Wrestling — John Pugh, captain's award; Pugh and Havice, state tournament and Paul Brown, coaches' award.

Trophies were presented by coaches Lloyd Stockdale in basketball and baseball; Larry Knight, track; Don Ross, reserve basketball; Paul Jackson, wrestling; James Agich, freshman basketball and principal Ted Taylor presented the golf awards.

Varsity and reserve letter awards were presented last night. Those receiving varsity basketball awards were Campbell, Bob Flint, Honger, Klembara, Mason, Piatt and Mike Ward, manager.

Varsity wrestling letters went to Jim Bowersock, Fred Brown, Lew Brown, Paul Brown, Bill Cole, Sam Hall, Jack Havice, Virgil Havice, Bill Lucas, Ross Mullen, John Passage, John Pugh, Gale Williams and Chris Shivers and Dan Simms, managers.

Varsity baseball letters were won by Fred Brown, Lew Brown, Jim Burcham, Campbell, Flint, Dennis Klembara, Gary Klembara, Bob Madish, Andy Mellon, Dan Myers, Joel Peckovich, Piatt, Mike Smith and Alan Waite.

James Burcham of the Boosters Club served as toastmaster and the Rev. Arthur Crafton of the First Free Methodist Church offered invocation and benediction.

Callison Leads Phillies Past Reds

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Callison has thrown away his weights and now his bat is weighing into Philadelphia's push towards the top of the National League.

Callison drove in four runs with a double, triple and home run Thursday night, helping the Phillies beat Cincinnati 7-3. It was the third straight victory over the Reds for the Phillies and the second straight game in which Callison homered.

The victory pulled the Phillies into second place, one game ahead of Cincinnati, Los Angeles and San Francisco and three back of idle St. Louis. The Dodgers dropped Chicago 6-0, Houston downed San Francisco 5-3 and Atlanta topped Pittsburgh 4-2 in the only other National League games scheduled Thursday.

Callison spent a week last winter with Gene Berde, the 63-year-old conditioning expert from Wakefield, Mass., who was credited with developing the body-building program that turned Carl Yastrzemski into baseball's top slugger last year.

"It wasn't a muscle-building thing," says Callison of the week he spent under Berde's tutelage. "As a matter of fact, he told me to throw away my weights. He told me all they did is build tired muscles."

So Callison climbed ropes, went through breathing exercises and rested his tired muscles. The result was a revitalized spring in which he felt leaner and stronger than at any time during his career.

He looked strong enough to the Reds. In the first inning of Thursday night's game, he followed a walk to Tony Taylor and Cookie Rojas' single with his three-base hit.

Then, after the Reds had tied the score in their half of the first, Callison unloaded his third home run of the season in the third inning with Taylor aboard.

Rojas climaxed the Phillie attack with a three-run homer in the ninth that wrapped up Larry Jackson's third victory. Dick Farrell finished up for Jackson when the Reds nicked him for a run in the bottom of the ninth.

Jim Wynn and Ron Davis both homered and Dave Giusti pitched a six-hitter as Houston defeated the Giants. Davis also drove in another Astro run with a fifth-inning single.

Hal Lanier, a Giant infielder, was tagged with an indefinite suspension and fine by Manager Herman Franks when he reportedly threw his bat and helmet after being lifted for a pinch hitter.

Rookie Ron Reed won his third straight game as Sonny Jackson drove in three runs with a pair of singles and the Braves whipped the Pirates.

Jackson's bases-loaded single in the second got Atlanta off in front and then he singled home another run with two-out in the eighth inning. Jim Britton, another rookie, relieved Reed in the ninth and got the final out.

Rocky Colavito smashed his third homer in two days for Los Angeles and Bill Singer's three-hitter shut out the Cubs.

Zoilo Versalles and Bob Bailey also connected for the Dodgers in the second got Atlanta off in front.

Jackson Gets 3 RBIs Former Hoopster Reed Beats Pirates On Hill

ATLANTA (AP)—Ron Reed, a former pro basketball star with the Detroit Pistons, has shown the Pittsburgh Pirates he's also a pretty fair baseball player.

He held the Bucs to six hits Thursday night as the Braves swept over the Pirates 4-2. And it was a loss the Pirates could ill afford. It dropped them into seventh place and below the .500 mark at 12 wins and 13 losses.

Pirate Manager Larry Shepard thought Reed pitched a good game. "Although I didn't think he was as fast as I've heard," Shepard said.

Reed himself and Atlanta Manager Luman Harris didn't think he was up to par either. "I wasn't as strong tonight as usual," Reed said afterwards.

Said Harris: "Reed pitched real well, even though he was wider than usual. He got tired about the seventh. I thought he could go all the way, but when they opened the ninth with a double and then a single, I thought it best to get him out."

Reed got last out help from Jim Britton who retired Manny Jimenez who on a pop to Sonny Jackson.

It was Jackson's bat that got to the Pirates the most Thursday night. He drove in three runs on two singles. His single in the eighth wrapped up the game for the Braves.

Dave Wickham had two on and two out when Jackson hit into left-center field, Matty Alou and Willie Stargell charged in and Maury Wills charged out.

Wills attempted a back-to-the-infield catch when no outfielder called him off the ball and couldn't make the catch. That gave the Braves a 3-1 edge and Sandy Valdespino's single boosted it to 4-1 a moment later.

The Pirates touched Reed for a run in the sixth and another in the ninth. In the sixth Gary Kolb doubled and took third on a single by Stargell. Then he scored on a double by Manny Mota.

In the ninth Mota doubled again and Jerry May singled him home.

Jackson got the Braves their other two runs with a single early in the game. The bases were loaded in the second inning with Tito Francona, Tommie Aaron and Cleto Boyer.

Despite it all, Shepard thought the Bob Moose "pitched well enough to win."

But he was a bit despondent. "We're not going well. I hope we can straighten it out," he said.

Cotton is easy to care for.

Canadiens Edge Blues, Lead NHL Series 3-0

MONTREAL (AP) — Bobby Rousseau ruined Doug Harvey's homecoming Thursday night by scoring at 1:13 of overtime to give the Montreal Canadiens a 4-3 Stanley Cup victory and 3-0 lead in the best-of-7 final series against the St. Louis Blues.

It was the first time in four years that the 43-year-old Harvey had played in the Montreal Forum after spending 14 seasons of glory with the Canadiens before being sold to the New York Rangers.

He was called back up after the Kansas City Blues, with whom he was playing coach this season, were knocked out of the Central Professional League playoffs.

But his duty with St. Louis was cut short by a groin injury and he managed to see only brief playoff action against Philadelphia and Minnesota. He hadn't played in the other final games, won 3-2 in overtime and 1-0 by Montreal in St. Louis.

Rousseau, whose goal was his first playoff winner in eight years as a Canadian, was just breaking into the big time and played only 15 games in Harvey's last year with Montreal.

But Thursday night Rousseau slammed the puck past veteran St. Louis goalie Glenn Hall after winger Dick Duff had split Harvey and defense partner Barclay Plager to get two tries at a goal only to be held off by Hall.

Yvan Cournoyer, Serge Savard and Ralph Backstrom were the other Canadiens to get the puck past Hall, while Red Berenson, with two goals, and Frank St. Marseille, beat Lorne Worsley in the Montreal net.

The fourth game of the series is set for Saturday at 3 p.m. EDT, and will be televised by CBS.

Run At Aqueduct

Withers Race Saturday May Simplify Preakness

By ED SCHUYLER Jr

Associated Press Sports Writer

A couple of pieces could fall into place in the Preakness puzzle with the running of the Withers Saturday at Aqueduct.

Dancers Image, the disqualified Kentucky Derby winner, possibly will be sidelined for the Preakness, and only Forward Pass, Jig Time, Iron Ruler and Francie's Hat are probable starters from the 14-horse Derby field.

The second jewel of the Triple Crown, set for Pimlico May 18, needs starters. Enter the $50,000-added, one-mile Withers.

Impressive performances in the Withers could send one or more of the probable 10-horse field to the Preakness. An outstanding effort by a colt which has not been nominated for the Preakness also could result in a trip to Pimlico. The Preakness accepts supplementary nominations.

The Preakness nominees expected to go in the Withers are Mrs. H. C. Phipps' What A Pleasure, Mrs. Adele L. Rand's Call Me Prince, Robert J. Kieberg's Out Of The Way, Max Gluck's Verbatim, Mildred Beall's Martin's Jig, C.V. Whitney's Bugged and James P. Mills' Salerno.

There are also a $75,000-added and another $50,000-added race on Saturday's schedule.

The higher money race is the 1½ mile Illinois Derby for 3-year-olds. A probable field of 13 is headed by the Michael Phipps' entry of Bold Favorite and Lithio and Clifford Lusky's Blarney Kiss.

The $50,000 event is 1½-mile Dixie Handicap on the turf at Pimlico. MacConn Farm's Irish Rebellion has drawn the top weight of 117. He likely will be opposed by seven.

Kentucky Derby Title Clouded In Confusion

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Confusion, discretion, jangling phones and jangling nerves were everywhere today as the slowest decision in Kentucky Derby history plodded toward its finish line.

The end, most probably, will come Monday when the owner, trainer and handlers of Dancer's Image will appear before Churchill Downs stewards in a hearing to determine who drugged the horse, when they did it and why.

Dancer's Image, winner of last Saturday's Derby, was disqualified after stewards at the track announced traces of phenylbutazone were found in a urine specimen taken from the colt after the race.

Made timid by the first disqualification in the 94-year history of America's and the world's most famous horse race, sources hedged at every question. All said they didn't want to say anything that might influence the outcome of the hearing.

Reporters—and in some cases, the general public—kept asking. Where they didn't find discretion, they found confusion. "I'm just plain upset about all this," said Mrs. Gene Markey, owner of Forward Pass, who finished second in the Derby.

Bob Stanton Leads New Orleans Open

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Controversy raged today over the resigned 15th hole at the plush Lakewood Country Club golf course where the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open moved into its second day.

"I don't think it's a fair hole," said Bob Stanton, the 22-year-old Aussie who fashioned a six-under par 65 Thursday to take a one-stroke lead after the first round.

"I think it was a better hole to play as it was," said Tom Weiskopf, the handsome Ohio shot-maker who leads this year's money winners with nearly $80,000. Weiskopf, Johnny Pott and South African Gary Player, all had 66s.

Jack Nicklaus, golf's Golden Bear, said of No. 15, now a par 4 hole playing at 470 yards: "It was a wonderful par 5, but a lousy par 4."

"I don't give a damn what they say," commented Jack Weiss, a tournament official. "I think it's a real fine hole now. Just because it's a par 5 for the members doesn't mean it has to be a par 5 for the pros."

The tee was moved up 60 yards on the hole, making it 470 yards and a par 4.

The hole is a most hazardous one to drive because a ball hit to the right or even slightly to the left could land in the lakes on either side of the narrow fairway.

Eight of the 10 eagles made in and was declared the winner after the drug was found in the system of Dancer's Image.

"It upset me in a way—I was elated—when they told me we had won the Derby," Mrs. Markey said. "Now they tell me maybe we haven't won. Frankly, I'm all mixed up."

The general manager of the firm that found the phenylbutazone wouldn't say anything at all. "I hope you understand, but all these questions will be asked at the hearing and we'll answer them then," he said.

The emotion centered around these points:

—The original announcement by Churchill Downs Tuesday indicated that Dancer's Image had been disqualified and that Forward Pass had been declared the winner of the Derby.

—A statement later by one of the stewards who decide such things said that nothing was official—yet. But asked if Dancer's Image still might be declared the Derby winner, Leo O'Donnell said, "No, I don't think so."

—A second statement from Churchill Downs left no doubt. It said the track where the Derby has been at home for 94 years would recognize Forward Pass, from the Calumet Farm, as its 1968 winner.

Bears Defeat Beaver Local Golf Squad

The Oak Glen golf team upped its mark to 7-1 with a 172-191 trouncing of Beaver Local at Woodview yesterday.

Bob Glass had a 40, Phil Hudok a 48, Jim Szymanski a 42 and Jack Burnquist and Greg Todd 45s for the winners. Bob Eardley had a 44, Rick Metz a 43, Steve Craig a 53, John Weber a 51 and John Smith a 53 for the Beavers.

Beaver Local is 1-7-1 on the year.

Africa's oldest republic is Liberia, declared a republic in 1847.

Camaioni Gets Top Award

Don Camaioni received the outstanding scholar-athlete award at the Sixth Annual Western Beaver Boosters Club banquet held last night at the school cafeteria.

Camaioni is a guard on the football team.

Other top scholar-athletes honored by the boosters club were Joe Rasillo, football; Darrell (Bucky) Dye, basketball; Clyde Hendershot, baseball; Fran Marron, golf; Dave (Machine) Grimm, cross-country; and Dwayne Cooper, track. In addition, the boosters honored the three senior cheerleaders, captain Melanie Engel, Ginny Hindman and Mary Nevill. The awards were presented by booster club president William Ondra.

The guest speaker at the affair was Chuck Klausung, head football coach and athletic director at Indiana U. (Pa.). Klausung is best known for his winning streak of 55 straight games while coach at Braddock. He talked on the importance of youth honoring their mothers and fathers.

Jack Parsons of the Boosters club served as master of ceremonies. Principal Michael Arbutina opened the program and superintendent Frank Meredith closed it. Schoolboard president Richard Graham and athletic committee chairman Olen Gibson were recognized.

Golf coach Dick Temple announced that the golf team had won the Section 8 championship by beating Hopewell 9½ - 6½ Wednesday to finish with a 9-1 record in the section. Marron was honored as the first four-year letterman in the history of the school and Mike George was the other senior letterman on the team. Junior lettermen are Bob Benek, Steve Carey, Chuck Kelker, John Petchel and Wayne Robbins.

Track coach Cecil Allison noted that Mike Lacey set a school record in the shot put at the Midland Invitational Track Meet Wednesday with a winning throw of 47-3 and Dave LeFebvre set a school record with a 2:07.3 clocking in the 880, even though he didn't win. John Tennerelli in the pole vault and Grimm in the two-mile had also set school records during the season. Allison also noted that this was the first year that the track team had ever won a meet. The Golden Beavers finished fourth of five schools at the WPIAL Class B qualifiers.

Senior track lettermen were Cooper, Blaine Gibson, Lacey, LeFebvre, Mike Nola and Bob Turyan. Juniors were Don Albacher, Chuck Britton, Tom Edwards, Bill Jarrett, Brad Schmitt, and Tennerelli. Dave Bodie and Grimm were sophomore lettermen and Dan Turner lettered as a freshman.

Allison also presented the cross-country letters. Seniors were Ron Carroll and Dean Eshenbaugh, juniors were Albaker, John Anderson, Don Bartley, Joe Camaioni, Edwards and Keith McGaffick and Grimm was the lone sophomore.

Football letters were presented by assistant coach Fred Latherow, who noted that Western was the MAC Class B champion. He admitted there were only two schools in this category. Seniors honored were Larry Beardshall, John Blackwood, Camaioni, Nick Cilli, Cooper, Gibson, Lacey, LeFebvre, Sam Liberator, Bob Paulovich, Joe Radella, Rasillo, Turyan, Jim Wilson and Steve Zawosky. Juniors were Chuck Barrickman, Stephen Elko, Howard Guthrie, Jarrett, Petchel and Tennerelli. Sophomores were Leetonia placed second in a triangular meet held at Leetonia last night.

Canfield won with 79½ points, Leetonia had 47½ and Sebring 32. Bob Mesmer set a school record in the two-mile for Leetonia by doing 10:37.2. Other winners for the Bears were Dan Bell in the high hurdles, Ken DiCross in the shot put and Ed Casey in the high jump.

Pro Gridders Exonerated Of Gambling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pro football Commissioner Pete Rozelle says four players whose names have entered a federal grand jury gambling probe are innocent of any wrongdoing.

Pittsburgh tackle Fran O'Brien testified Thursday as the grand jury in suburban Alexandria, Va., wound up three days of secret hearings.

Subpoenas were canceled without being served on Washington quarterback Sonny Jurgensen, Redskins guard Vince Promuto and Baltimore defensive end Andy Stynchula.

Redskins' President Edward Bennett Williams, an attorney, said Jurgensen and Promuto have been cooperating willingly in the investigation. He said the two players were questioned by federal officials several weeks ago.

The federal grand jury decided to take a five-week recess and resume the investigation June 12.

The probe is aimed at alleged illegal use of interstate facilities to conduct and promote gambling in the Washington area. Court sources have said witnesses have been called to give information and not as suspects.

In New York, Rozelle said, "when we were informed of the situation, we conducted an investigation and are satisfied that the players are not guilty of any wrongdoing."

White Sox May Shift Franchise

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Owners of the Chicago White Sox have been given permission to move their American League baseball franchise to Milwaukee next year, the Los Angeles Times said Wednesday.

Quoting a "reliable source," the Times said the decision was made at an April 25 meeting of American League owners and executives but that a White Sox official denied it.

The White Sox are playing nine regular-season games this year in Milwaukee, former home of the National League Braves. First game for the White Sox in the Wisconsin city is next Wednesday against the California Angels.

The White Sox for some time have been planning to build a stadium in Chicago. Arthur Allyn, club owner, reportedly is on the verge of getting approval for a $43-million sports complex near downtown Chicago.

Attendance at White Sox games has dwindled in recent years.

Weaver Breaks 24 Of 25 Birds To Take Honors

Robert Weaver took top honors when he broke 24 of 25 clay pigeons during the 16-day event of the Columbiana County Fish and Game Protective Association Wednesday evening.

Placing second were Joe and Charley Brown with 23.

Winners of the protector shoots were George Dudick and Lanford Blevins with two wins. With one win were Ray Thompson and Alfred Cochran, Alfred Cochran and Blevins and Harold Harkin and Joe Brown.

Glen Ramsey, Blevins and Alfred Cochran were named winners of the three-man protector shoot.

During the 10-target events, Gus and Clayton Cochran scored two wins each, followed by Luther Adkins, Rardin, Jerry Reynolds, Ray Goodman, Jesse Reynolds, Charlie Brown, Glen Ramsey, Joe Brown and Kenny Reynolds, one each.

Glen Ramsey captured the 25-target international feature shoot.

Paul Saling, president, announced the Saturday shoot will begin at 4 p.m. and ATA registered shoots will start at 1 p.m. Sunday.

-Junior Editors Quiz on- SASSAFRAS

QUESTION: Where does sassafras come from and what is it used for?

ANSWER: Sassafras is quite easy to recognize. It may be a medium sized tree or a shrub, but its leaves and bark have a special fragrance and spicy taste which one will identify easily after first acquaintance. The leaves vary in shape, even in the same leaf group. Some may be without lobes or divisions, others have two or three. Sassafras is one of those wild plants which are grouped as being edible, others being water cress, black mustard, milkweed and dandelion. Sassafras can be used to make a hot tea by digging up the roots, drying them and scraping off the bark, the scrapings being then steeped in hot water like tea leaves. This makes a pleasant aromatic drink, which was widely used in the old days, especially as a cure for the upsets often vaguely called "spring fever." The boy in our picture seems to feel that the best cure of his spring fever is a sizzling steak, cooked over an open fire; chances are he is right. Another use for sassafras lies in extracting sassafras oil, which is often used as a perfume in soap; still another lies in the wood, which is light and suitable for making fence posts.

John F. Kennedy and Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson discussed defense problems at a meeting at Hyannisport, Mass.

One year ago: It was disclosed that there had been a minor collision between a U.S. destroyer and a Soviet destroyer which was harrassing the American ship in the Sea of Japan.

Stauffer And Stouffer Find Links Of Close Relationship

LEETONIA — Two World War I veterans with similar names met for the first time here Thursday and learned their grandmothers were sisters.

Edson Stauffer of Youngstown and Howard (Dutch) Stouffer Sr. of Washingtonville were among 88 War I vets at the monthly luncheon at St. Patrick's Catholic Church. It was Stauffer's first meeting with the group.

Kenneth P. Chamberlain, a gas and heating engineer from Cleveland, was guest speaker. He related his experiences in Finland and Russia just after World War II when he served as a traveling consultant on synthetic rubber. Chamberlain is at work on a new process of fusion-bonding plastic to metal for Standard Bonded Coating, Inc., of Leetonia.

Women of the parish served a chicken dinner. Harry H. Ferrall of Leetonia RD 2, president, was in charge assisted by Russell C. Arbaugh of Boardman and Ralph Reddington and Harry Lundgren, both of Columbiana. The Rev. John C. Campbell of Lisbon gave the invocation.

The veterans stood for a moment of silence in memory of three buddies who died since the April meeting — Andrew Arnold and Walter W. Sweeney, both of Salem, and Roscoe Peterman of Canfield.

The group sang "Happy Birthday" to Henry Warner, Columbiana; Carl J. Bretz, New Waterford; Russell Anglemeyer, Leetonia; Cecil Carter, Salineville; Edgar W. Kuhns, Youngstown, and Peter Stankovich, Salem.

Elmer Reihl, Poland; Thomas Cusick, Salem, and Ralph E. Lenz, Youngstown, were the song leaders.

Ferrall reported that the bus which will take the veterans to the Cleveland-Detroit baseball game June 22 at Lakefront Stadium is "sold out." It will leave from American Legion Post 290 at Columbiana at 10 a.m. Ticket money should be forwarded to Ferrall by June 7.

H. J. English, manager of the East Liverpool office of the Columbiana County Automobile Club (AAA), will speak for the group's next dinner at 12:30 p.m. June 13 at the First Church of Christ in East Liverpool.

Beaver Picks New Officer

BEAVER — Beaver County Court today announced the appointment of R. W. Lotz as chief juvenile probation officer to succeed W. L. Ambrose, who will retire May 31.

Lotz and his family have moved to Brighton Township. He is a 1951 graduate of Turtle Creek High School and has bachelor and master's degrees in social work from the University of Pittsburgh. A Marine veteran, he was discharged a sergeant. He has been serving the Allegheny County Juvenile Court.

Ambrose served nine years as police chief of Aliquippa and was named chief county detective in January 1940. In July 1942, he joined the 3rd Army Corps as a captain.

He organized the Kobuta plant police department during the war and had 81 men serving under him. He served the Pennsylvania Board of Parole, covering Butler, Beaver and Lawrence counties.

He was appointed chief adult probation officer in 1945 and has served the court since. He has a record of having missed only two days work during that time, and in both cases because of illness.

Ambrose has investigated 29 murders during his tenure and conducted more than 3,000 juvenile hearings.

He expressed his appreciation to the various offices for their cooperation and cited the good relationships he has "enjoyed with all newspapers."

Wellsville Discusses Water Line Extension

Extension of city water lines to the Kountz Ave. area was discussed during a meeting of Wellsville officials, representatives of Liverpool Township and an engineer from the New Philadelphia firm of W. E. Quicksell & Associates Thursday morning.

William McKenna, engineer for the New Philadelphia firm, said the lines, if approved, could be extended in conjunction with the project under consideration to run lines to the Hillcrest area or as a separate project. McKenna said he would consult the county commissioners and discuss the possibilities of each alternative.

Attending were Councilmen J. B. Phillips, Russell Keefe and Robert Taggart, Mayor William Daugherty, Liverpool Township Trustee Guy Digman and Robert Mackall, a resident of the Kountz Ave. area.

Fair, Cooler Tonight; It May Rain Saturday

Fair and a little cooler tonight, with a chance of showers Saturday.

That's the district weather outlook. Temperatures will average near normal through Wednesday, with only minor day-to-day changes.

The highs will be in the 60s to low 70s and the lows in the upper 40s and low 50s.

Frost and drought are constant threats to wheat.

Township Given Jurisdiction On Dixonville Street

LIBSON — County commissioners Thursday adopted a resolution transferring to Liverpool township trustees Macrum Ave. from Anderson Blvd. south a distance of about 17-100ths of a mile.

The commissioners also received a road vacation petition from 13 Center Township residents.

The resolution provides that the county engineer is to maintain a storm sewer system by a pipe or open ditch along both sides of Macrum Ave., which will be known in the future as Township Rd. 3121.

Liverpool Township trustees sent a resolution to County Engineer John Ursu May 3 saying the township agrees to accept the 17-100ths of a mile of Macrum for maintenance with the understanding the County Highway Department would continue to maintain the storm sewer system.

Commissioners set a public hearing on the road vacation petition for 1:30 p. m. June 3 in their office.

Petitioners ask for the vacation of a 20-foot alley running for 1,088 feet along the southwest boundary of the Leland Adams property and a 50-foot street, 160 feet long, connecting the alley and Pritchard Ave. Both roads are in the northwest quarter of section 13 northeast of Lisbon.

Funds For Demolition Due Action In Council

Council will meet in recessed session Monday night at 7 to act on legislation providing $2,450 to cover a contract for demolition of vacant buildings on a W. 6th St. tract that will be converted into off-street parking space.

The funds will be appropriated from the so-called off-street parking fund, where the city deposits money collected from meters on its lots. The low bid of $2,450 for razing the buildings was submitted May 3 to Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety Service Director Robert E. Vodrey by Ira W. VanFossan of 344 Louisiana Ave., Chester.

The property was donated to the city late in 1967 by W. Leland Thompson.

There are more than 200 stars in the Pleiades.
